Article VIII

Prohibited Activities:

Section 1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall be applied to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions, except in the furtherance of its charitable purposes.

Section 2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Section 3. The corporation shall have a radically nondiscriminatory policy and therefore shall not discriminate against applicants, students, employees, and others on the basis of race, color, or national or ethnic origin.

Section 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as revised from time to time (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, as revised from time to time or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

Article IX

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws:

The power to alter, amend or repeal the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws or to adopt new Bylaws shall be established by the Directors/officers. The Bylaws may contain provisions for the regulations and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with the law or with the Articles of Incorporation.

Article X

Dissolution:

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all liabilities of the corporation, transfer all assets to a fund, foundation, or organization which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, or educational purposes and at that time qualifies as an organization exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as revised from time to time or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.
