This corporation was specifically created to mentor young children, by giving them guidance to help build character, citizenship, commitment, and confidence. The initial form of mentoring will be re-educating young children about fundamental values of one self. This organization led by Marie Ferdinand, will provide a sense of direction through emotional and physical support to attract young children giving them an opportunity to enhance and develop confidence in defining who they are, and to inspire their desire for positive fulfillment of one self. In addition, I plan to help strengthen citizenship in young adults such as what roles they play in society when away from school, church, and/or other hobbies of interest. Moreover, the secondary focus will be to help instill discipline into young adults in hopes that they will adapt a sense of dedication and commitment by gaining in-depth knowledge of consistency, sacrifice, and responsibility. The final purpose of this organization will be to encourage and support young people to enhance and develop athletic training, notably basketball.
