ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

Northwest Florida Neurological Rehab Facility, Inc.

(A Corporation Not-For-Profit)

The undersigned hereby adopts these articles of incorporation to form a not-for-profit corporation pursuant to Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I

Name and Address

The name of the corporation shall be Northwest Florida Neurological Rehab Facility, Inc. (the "corporation"). The address of its principal office and mailing address is 120 Park Drive, Pensacola, Florida 32507.

ARTICLE II

Duration

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III

Purpose Clause

The purposes for which this corporation is organized are:

A. The corporation is organized for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes, including but not limited to, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and, more specifically, to receive and administer funds for such above-stated purposes, all for the public, by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, or lease, either absolutely or in trust for such objects and purposes or any of them, any property, real, personal or mixed, without limitation as to amount of value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey, and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and expend the principal and income therefrom for any of the purposes contain herein, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property, real, personal or mixed, in trust, under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes or any of them, and in administering the same to carry out the directions, and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income, for one or more of such purposes, if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received, but no gift, bequest or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it be conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organization other than an "exempt organization" or for other than "exempt purposes" within the meaning of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or later amended, or as shall in the opinion of the Board of Directors, jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of the corporation pursuant to §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or later amended; to receive, take title to, hold, and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations, or other securities of any corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes, or some of them; and, in general, to exercise any, all and every power for which a non-profit corporation organized under the applicable provisions of Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes all for the public welfare, can be authorized to exercise, but only to the extent the exercise of such powers are in furtherance of exempt purposes.

B. Included among the charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes for which the corporation is organized, as qualified and limited by subparagraph (A) of this Article III are to build, equip, support, maintain, staff, and operate a not-for-profit facility in Escambia County, Florida.

C. To do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers earlier set forth, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects or purposes of any part or parts thereof, provided the same are not inconsistent with the laws under which this corporation is organized.

ARTICLE IV

Restrictions

A. This corporation is a nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, and is created, organized, and shall be operated for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes.

B. The board of directors shall at all times endeavor to operate and conduct the affairs of the corporation so that each contribution to it shall qualify and be allowable to the donor thereof as a charitable deduction for federal, income, estate and gift, and generation-skipping tax purposes under applicable law.

C. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

D. All of the property of this corporation is and shall be irrevocably dedicated to charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes, and in the event of a dissolution of this corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation in such manner or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes, or other exempt purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or to a federal, state, or local government body to be used for exclusively public purposes as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of by the Board of Directors shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, political, religious, social, fraternal, literary, cultural, athletic, scientific, agricultural, horticultural, animal husbandry, and professional, commercial, industrial, or trade association purposes, or such other exempt purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or to a federal, state, or local government body, as such court shall determine. In no event shall the net income, assets or the property of the corporation, or the proceeds of any of such assets or property, upon dissolution, go, be distributed to, or inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member of the corporation or private individual [unless they or it qualifies under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended], either for reimbursement of any sums subscribed, donated or contributed by such party, or for any other purpose.

ARTICLE V

Capital Stock

The corporation shall have no capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock.

ARTICLE VI

Members

The corporation shall have members, unless the by-laws shall provide that the corporation shall not have members. Qualification, voting and other rights of such members and the manner of their election or appointment shall be as set forth in the by-laws. If the by-laws provide that the corporation shall not have members, the board of directors shall have all of the powers that the members would otherwise have, including, but not limited to, the power to elect directors and the power to amend these articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE VII

Liability

None of the members, directors or officers of this corporation shall be personally liable for its debts, liabilities or obligations.

ARTICLE VIII

Activities of Corporation

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation. _

ARTICLE IX

Initial Board of Directors

The general management of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, the number of members of which shall be seven (7) directors, initially. The number of directors may be either increased or diminished from time to time by the by-laws but shall never be less than three (3).
