ARTICLE III

Purpose

a. The Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation organized under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The specific purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To assist needy debtors to improve their finances through educating them as to better means of managing their money and seeking for them, if appropriate, an extension or other reorganization of their debts;

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

b. The following provisions are hereby adopted for the purpose of defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and members:

- (i). The Corporation shall not have members. The directors shall exercise all of the rights and powers of members.
- (ii). Provisions regarding the distribution of assets upon dissolution are as follows: Upon the termination, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation in any manner or for any reason, its assets, if any, remaining after payment (or provision for payment) of all liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to, and only to, one or more organizations having either exclusively charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and only for exempt purposes as described in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code or to, or for, the use of the federal government or a state or local government exclusively for a public purpose.
- (iii). No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in this furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. -- --
