SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

FILED

ARTICLE I

CORPORATE NAME

The name of the Corporation is:

ALPHA NEW HORIZON COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE II

DURATION

The period of duration of this Corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law. Corporate existence shall commence upon the filing of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE III

CORPORATE PURPOSES: POWERS

1. The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable, educational and humanitarian within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

The Corporation's charitable, educational and humanitarian goals shall be met through the following specific methods:

- (a) To provide family and individual counseling services, family therapy, parenting skills, group therapy, life skills, educational workshops, counseling services for youth, adolescents, young adults, adults, parents and families, nutritional programs and nutritional counseling within the State of Florida, and throughout the United States.
- (b) To contract with, provide the services of, engage in activities with, contract for, or otherwise utilize or make available social workers, family therapists, group therapists, life-skills workers, educational workshop coordinators/facilitators, family/domestic counselors, child care/day care counselors and consultants, child abuse counselors, law enforcement coordinators, facilitators, contractors, nutritionist and other personnel and services necessary or appropriate for the provision of individual and family therapy, parenting skills, group therapy, life skills, educational workshops, domestic and family counseling, nutritional programs and nutritional counseling, and similar services of all types whatsoever as may relate thereto or arise there from.
- (c) By doing whatever is legal under Florida law as pertaining to not for-profit corporations including operating for charitable, educational and humanitarian purposes in order to qualify the Corporation as an organization described under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or under any corresponding provision of any subsequent federal tax law.

2. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

- (a) To accept, acquire, receive, take and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature of description and wherever situated.

- (b) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.
- (c) To borrow money, and, from time to time, to make accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bill of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privileges of the corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.
- (d) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property, real and personal, as it shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and applicable regulations thereunder, as they now exist or as they may be amended.

3. Notwithstanding any article or provision herein to the contrary, in the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation:

- (a) The Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity, that would invalidate its status:
 - (1) as a corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1968 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law); or
 - (2) as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

- (b) The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable, educational and humanitarian purposes, and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to it and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article.
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for political office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state or local laws.

(d) The Corporation shall not:

- (1) operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit;
- (2) accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status; or
- (3) except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

(e) The Corporation's operations are to be conducted principally in the United States of America; the Corporation also may conduct operations in foreign countries, subject, however, to the laws of the State of Florida.
