ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

CENTRAL FLORIDA REGIONAL BIBLE COLLEGE, INC.

(A CORPORATION NOT FOR PROFIT)

We, the undersigned, are desirous of forming a corporation for charitable purposes, under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, do agree as follows:

Article I – Name

The name of this corporation is Central Florida Regional Bible College, Inc.

Article II – Purposes

The purposes for which the corporation is formed are exclusively charitable and religious, and are to undertake educational endeavors of every type and nature including specifically, but not by way of limitation, classroom instruction, broadcasting, seminars, and speaking engagements, and to acquire, own, lease or rent, sell, mortgage, and to otherwise deal in property of all types, real and personal, tangible and intangible, necessary to and in furtherance of such purposes.

This corporation shall have all powers provided by law, including Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and shall have full power to transact and perform such acts and things as shall be necessary or appropriate for the attainment of such purpose. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power:

- (1) To acquire, receive and accept, by way of grant, gift, devise, bequest, purchase, lease or otherwise, money and real and personal property of every kind, nature and description, without limitation as to the amount or value, including securities (which term, for all purposes hereof, including without limiting the generality thereof, shares of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages or other obligations, and any certificates, receipts or other

- instruments, representing any rights or interests therein or with respect thereto), created or issued by any person, firm, association, corporation or government or subdivision thereof; to exercise as owner or holder of any such property and any and all rights, powers and privileges in respect thereof, to hold, administer, sell, convey, dispose of, invest and reinvest such property and the income and proceeds thereof; to use, apply or disburse any of it's property or the income or the proceeds thereof, exclusively for or toward any one or more of its purposes as enumerated in the Article II; and
- (2) To solicit the donation or investment of funds from boards, agencies, and other institutions of any type and from other persons and sources. To receive, hold, invest, reinvest and administer such funds and other property which may be given, transferred, conveyed or entrusted to it in an investment fund or mortgage pool; to issue receipts to such donors and holders or participation certificates, notes or debentures for their gifts, or as the case may be, their interest in or their loans to such investment fund or mortgage pool; to invest such funds to the extent determined by the board of directors, including specifically, but not by way of limitation, in stocks, bonds or other securities, without being limited to so-called legal investments for fiduciaries; to collect the interest or income there from; to purchase, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, or hypothecate, all kinds of securities, and to exercise any and all of said powers, either on its own account, or as agent or trustee for other persons, firms, corporations or other organizations.

Article III – Qualifications of Members

The members of the Corporation shall be the original subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation, and thereafter any subsequent members shall be admitted upon acceptance by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Article IV - Term of Existence

This corporation is to exist perpetually. Upon dissolution of this corporation, all its assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution, shall be distributed to a religious or charitable organization of like evangelistic doctrine as espoused by this corporation, which has qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for public purposes, and none of the assets will be distributed to any members, officer or trustee of this corporation.
