ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
PANORAMA HOMELESS COALITION Inc.

In compliance with the laws of the State of Florida, the undersigned do hereby voluntarily associate for the purpose of forming a corporation not-for-profit for the purposes and with powers set forth herein.

ARTICLE I - NAME

PANORAMA HOMELESS COALITION Inc.

ARTICLE II - REGISTERED AGENT

The name and address of the Registered Agent of the Association is:
This is also the Principal office address.

Bishop Reginald Green
625 Brownlee Street
Starke, FL 32091

ARTICLE III - PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal office of the Corporation shall be in Starke, Florida; but the Corporation may maintain offices and transact business in, within the State of Florida, or any other county in the State of Florida, as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE AND POWERS

The purposes of which this Corporation is formed are exclusively charitable, educational, social and economic. And will consist of the following:

A. The Specific and primary purposes are:

Goal 1: Place homeless families and less disabled single adults into permanent housing as rapidly as possible and link them to services; provide permanent supportive housing for people who are chronically homeless and chronically disabled.

Goal 2: Work with mainstream programs whose clients often become homeless (i.e., mental, health, health care, welfare, and veteran's assistance) to prevent homelessness.

Goal 3: Enhance Local efforts to understand the nature of homelessness and its solutions, and to engage in long range planning to end homelessness in the Coalition's sphere of influence.

Goal 4: To improve the quality of life for said individuals by sponsoring activities that will clear up misconceptions and misunderstandings, while facilitating forums that deal with unfairness and injustice, and sponsoring activities that provide opportunities for productivity, self-improvement and self-determination.

B.

(1) To raise the economic, educational and social levels of the residents of Putnam County, including members of the moderate, low, and very low income community, who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to foster and promote community-wide interest and concern for the problems of said residents to the end that (a) educational and economic opportunities may be expanded; (b) sickness, poverty, crime, and environmental degradation may be lessened; and (c) racial tensions, prejudice, and discrimination, economic and otherwise, any be eliminated; and (d) need for establishing and fostering additional availability of affordable housing.

(2) To expand the opportunities available to said residents and groups to own, manage, and operate business enterprises in economically depressed areas; to assist said residents and groups in developing entrepreneurial and management skills necessary for the successful operation of business enterprises; and to assist said residents and groups in obtaining financial support from other sources.

(3) To expand opportunities available to said residents and groups to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodation by constructing, rehabilitating, and providing decent, safe, and sanitary housing for persons and families of low-income who other wise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live. It is this purpose of the Corporation thereby to relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare. To provide such housing through rehabilitation of existing substandard buildings and constructions of new facilities in the place of blighted structures or blighted vacant sites for the purpose of combating the deterioration of the community and contributing to its physical improvements.

(4) To aid, support and assist by gifts, contributions, or otherwise, other corporations, community chests, funds and foundations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes, no part of the net earnings of which endures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is for carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(5) To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizational of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

C. In furtherance, but not in limitation, of the foregoing charitable, educational and scientific purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(1) To solicit, collect and receive money and other assets, and to administer funds and contributions received by grant, gift, deed, bequest or devise, and otherwise to acquire money, securities, property, rights and services of every kind and description, and to hold, invest, expend, contribute, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any money, securities, property, rights or services so acquired for the purpose above mentioned.

(2) To borrow money, and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, and other corporate obligations for monies borrowed, or in payment for property acquired or for any of the purposes of the Corporation, and to secure payment of any such obligation by mortgage, pledge, deed indenture agreement or other instrument or trust, or by other lien upon, assignment of or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the Corporation.

(3) To invest and reinvest its funds in such mortgages, bonds, notes, debentures, shares, of preferred and common stock, and any other securities of any kind whatsoever, and property, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, all as the Corporation's Board of Directors shall deem advisable and as may be permitted by law.

(4) To engage in activity of operation business ventures for the purposes of providing job training, employment services, and managerial development opportunities to said residents for the charitable purpose of fathering the economic development of the community.

(5) To hire and fire employees and to contract for outside services at the will of the Corporation.

(6) To engage in any and all activities which will directly or indirectly improve the welfare and economic conditions of said residents and groups.

(7) To exercise all rights and powers conferred upon corporations formed under the General Nonprofit Corporation Law of the state of Florida provided, however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers, including those specifically mentioned herein, that are not in furtherance of the specific and primarily charitable, educational and scientific purposes of the Corporation.

(8) The operation of said Corporation shall also include the concerns of:
