SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the undersigned, citizens and residents of the State of Florida and the United States of America, over the age of twenty-one (21), for the purpose of organizing and forming a nonprofit corporation under the provisions of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (Florida Statutes, Title XXXVI, Chapter 617) and all laws amendatory and supplementary, and for such purpose, do hereby associate ourselves and make, sign and acknowledge, certify, adopt and file this certificate of Articles of Incorporation that purpose as follows:

ARTICLE I

The Infinity Foundation, Inc.

The name of this corporation shall be and is The Infinity Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II

Nonprofit Status

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (Florida Statutes, Title XXXVI, Chapter 617), as hereinafter amended.

This corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit. This corporation shall not have the power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends. No part of the net earnings or assets (if any) of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, be distributable to, nor shall dividends be paid to, any member, director, officer, trustee, or any other private person at any time whatsoever, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in accordance with the corporate purposes set forth in Article IV (below).

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE III

Duration

The period of the duration of this corporation is unlimited and of perpetual duration.

ARTICLE IV

Purposes

The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

A. Specific and Primary Purposes:

Section One. This corporation is organized for, and will be operated exclusively for, educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code for the promotion of education, specifically:

To instruct, counsel, or train individuals for the purpose of improving or developing their capabilities; and

To instruct the public on subjects useful to individuals and beneficial to the community, including, but not limited to:

Teach individuals, couples and children life skills such as self-empowerment, self-discovery, and self-mastery to help them reach their full potential;

Instruct individuals on holistic healing and life balance for a healthy body, mind and spirit;

Instruct individuals on how to build strong relationships with their families, their life partners, and others;

Instruct and uplift individuals, and empower them to heal their pasts, build inner resources, overcome obstacles and handicaps, and create enriched lives for themselves through making informed choices.

Section Two. The Infinity Foundation, Inc. does not practice discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, handicap, age, or any other criteria.

Section Three: To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be person, organizations (of any kind or nature), corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations or government bureaus, departments and agencies.

B. In Furtherance of, but Not in Limitation of, the Foregoing Purposes, the Corporation Shall Have the Following Purposes and Powers:

Section One: To acquire, purchase, construct, own, hold, invest in, lease, manage, develop, maintain, rehabilitate, improve, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of and deal in real or personal property, whether improved or unimproved, and any interest therein, of every kind and description.

Section Two: To borrow money and execute such evidence of indebtedness and such contracts, agreements, mortgages, deeds, leases, assignments, conveyances, security agreements or other instruments as may be necessary.

Section Three. To develop and administer programs for mentally or emotionally troubled youth, dealing with rehabilitation, education, employment, welfare and health, in order to assist them in adjusting themselves to their environment; to train them in vocations and avocations; to aid them in all their activities; and to be of assistance in solving their particular problems.

Section Four. To do any lawful act or thing necessary or proper to carry out the foregoing purposes and powers. To exercise all other rights and powers conferred upon Nonprofit Corporations formed under the general Not for Profit Corporation Act and (consistent with the above), the Florida Business Corporation Act of the State of Florida.

Section Five. Provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any activity whatsoever, including those mentioned above, that are not in furtherance of the charitable purposes of the corporation. Further, all the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for charitable purposes and in such manner that the corporation shall qualify as a tax exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code of the United States Of America and applicable Florida State Tax Statutes, including Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3), as they are currently or shall hereinafter be in force and effect.
