To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending this short memo in regards to my non-profit organization "Investing in the youth Inc.". I first submitted the name to the fictitious name division of the Florida Department of State along with a check for the $50.00 fee. I later received a letter stating that my fictitious name has not been filed because of the Inc. abbreviation. Upon receiving this letter I called the department of fictitious names and they later informed me that I needed to file with the Division of Corporations. I then called the filing department of the Division of Corporations and I was told that the $50.00 fee would be applied to my application fee for my non-profit articles of incorporation.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "S. D. Bogan", written in a cursive style.

S. D. BOGAN
Executive Director
