ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

A PLACE OF REFUGE EVANGELISTIC, CORP.

A Florida Corporation Not-For-Profit

FILED

2003 APR 22 PM 2:30

SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

Pursuant to the provision of section 617.0202, Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be A PLACE OF REFUGE EVANGELISTIC, CORP., (the "Corporation"). Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes including for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

ARTICLE II

The street address of the initial principal office of the Corporation shall be 2720 N.W. 208th Terrace, Miami, FL 33056.

ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is because of the concern for the societal ills that plague our community, such as poverty, unemployment, broken homes, family maladjustment, antisocial behavior, physical, mental and emotional handicaps, racial tensions, inadequate housing, child abuse and neglect, economic under-development and crime, our goal is to promote a drug-free and safe community by rehabilitating individuals to become responsible citizens through the provision of specialized ministries to the needy, i.e., the homeless, homeless with AIDS, substance abusers, dually-diagnosed, victims of domestic violence, ex-offenders, and pregnant teens, regardless of race, sex, religion, and socio-economic status for the purpose of strengthening family and community ties. In order to meet these demands, we will provide food, clothing, and shelter, medical assessment and treatment referrals, comprehensive pregnancy care, recovery sponsorships, self-help AA/NA groups, and mentoring in a spiritual, holistic, and transitional living setting for charitable and educational purposes under IRS Code 501(c)(3) guidelines.

A PLACE OF REFUGE EVANGELISTIC, CORP.

The Corporation shall also be authorized to engage in and transact any and all lawful business within and without the State of Florida or United States for which corporations not-for-profit may be incorporated under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended and supplemented.

ARTICLE IV

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of section 501(c)(3) purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (2) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

Resolved that any salaries, wages, together with fringe benefits or other forms of compensation (housing, transportation and other allowances), paid to or provided to the Corporation's employees, directors, or officers will not exceed a value which is reasonable and commensurate with the duties and working hours associated with such employment and with the compensation ordinarily paid persons with similar positions or duties.

ARTICLE V

The succeeding officers and directors of the Corporation shall be elected in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the bylaws for the corporation.

The Corporation shall have all of the powers conferred upon corporations organized pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended and supplemented. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code) or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code).

ARTICLE VI

The initial directors and officers shall be as hereinafter designated:
