ARTICLE III – Purpose of this Corporation

SECTION 1.

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Federal Tax Code), including the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code). In furtherance of such purposes, the corporation is organized to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ and to seek to meet the spiritual, financial, charitable and physical needs of the community to the glory of God.

ARTICLE V – Additional Officers

The following members were elected by majority vote as additional officers:

Name	Address
Antwain J. Cook	3015 Hickory Glen Drive Orange Park, Florida 32065
Lizzie Fleming	918 Spearing Street Jacksonville, Florida 32206
Jason Square, Jr.	1744 Lawson Road Jacksonville, Florida 32246

ARTICLE VIII – Power of this Corporation

No part of net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Four hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not directly or indirectly participate in, or intervene in (including the publish or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, to any extent whatsoever.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code), or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code). Further notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation, and shall never be authorized to engage in a regular business of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit.

ARTICLE IX – Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution of this corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively to another corporation organized for the purposes of this corporation, or in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes, as shall at the time qualify as exempt purposes of organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code), as the Board of Directors shall determine. In the event that for any reason upon dissolution of the corporation the Board of Directors of the corporation shall fail to act in the manner herein provided within a reasonable time, the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of corporation is then located shall make or complete such distribution as herein provided upon the application of one or more interested persons.

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: 10/01/2004

Effective date if applicable: 10/01/2004
(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)
