ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
MILLENNIUM SERTOMA CLUB, INC.
(A CORPORATION NOT FOR PROFIT)

FILED
03 MAY 19 AM 9:32
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned incorporator to these Articles of Incorporation hereby associates to form a corporation (the "Corporation") not-for-profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the Corporation is Millennium Sertoma Club, Inc.. The principal office (and mailing address) is located at 1414 Loretto Circle, Odessa, FL 33556. The Board of Directors may from time to time move the principal office of the Corporation to any other address in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE II

Nature of Business

The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are:

- (a) To promote acquaintance, friendship and fellowship as an opportunity for service.
- (b) To encourage and foster the ideal of service and to provide opportunity for its Members to be of service to youth, to less fortunate of their fellowmen and to the community.
- (c) To create higher business and civic principles and to promote cooperation in all business and civic affairs.
- (d) To provide recognition of all worthy classifications of business, professions and other fields of endeavor as dignified occupation, worthy of serving mankind.
- (e) To provide through its Club meetings opportunity for the full and free discussion of matters of public interest.
- (f) To promote in every way the freedom of individuals and the maintenance of the principles of free enterprise: to encourage good government and good citizenship; and to further mutual tolerance and understanding among all peoples.

- (g) To engage in activities of worthwhile service and benefit to the community and its citizens, whether it be by the donations of funds or by the donations of time, labor and materials to needy causes, other than political causes, or by any other legal means.
- (h) To raise funds, or to acquire interests of any nature in real, personal or intangible property, all in pursuance of and limited exclusively to the pursuance of the purposes contained herein for which this corporation is formed, not however for the pecuniary gain or profit of any or all of this Corporation's Members.
- (i) To operate and function exclusively as a charitable, fraternal and educational not-for-profit corporation with all the rights, powers and privileges permitted by and subject to the restrictions imposed by Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and with purposes exclusively within the meaning of Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or afterward amended, and more particularly set out above.

ARTICLE III

Powers

The Corporation shall have the power, either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or in cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, desirable, suitable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Corporation shall exercise only such powers as are set forth in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and its regulations, as the same now exist or as they may be hereafter amended from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

All of the assets and earnings of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the exempt purposes herein above set forth, including the payment of expenses incidental thereto. No part of the net earnings shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers or any other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make distributions and payments in furtherance of the purposes set for the in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the Corporation's activity shall be for the carrying on of a program or propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or interfere with (including the publication or distribution of statements regarding) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws). The Corporation shall have no capital stock, pay no dividends, distribute no part of its net income or assets to any members, Directors, or officers, and the private property of the subscribers, members, Directors, and officers shall not be liable for the debts of the Corporation.

In particular, but without limitation of the generality of the foregoing paragraph, during such time as the Corporation may be considered a private foundation as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws) it shall not:

- (a) fail to distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);

- (b) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (c) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (d) make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws);
- (e) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Revenue Laws).

ARTICLE XIII

Dissolution

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment of or provision for all liabilities of the Corporation, including costs and expenses of such dissolution, shall be utilized exclusively for the exempt purposes of the Corporation or distributed to an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) or 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to the corresponding provisions of any future Revenue Law, as shall be selected by the last Board of Directors. None of the assets will be distributed to any member, officer or Director of this Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator executed these Articles this 15 day of May 2003.
