ANNUAL REPORT 2005-2006

Background

The Alliance for Action Council of Florida, Inc. (AACOFI) is a conglomerate of agencies that specialize in providing culturally competent services to minority populations throughout the state of Florida. Our mission is to serve as the primary source for professional expertise in providing social services to minority communities. Non-minority organizations including universities and private organizations continue to provide consulting services to the Alliance in such areas as community mobilization, services planning and implementation, and other critical areas of human services operations

We believe that:

- ◆ Minority organizations provide essential services to the community
- ◆ Every effort must be made to ensure the stability and success of minority organizations
- ◆ Minority organizations are uniquely positioned to access underserved populations
- ◆ Collaboration is vital

By bringing together minority organizations around the state of Florida, AACOFI is striving to accomplish the following goals:

- ◆ Promote collaboration and coordination amongst Black human services organizations
- ◆ Strive to increase the quantity and quality of service to our constituents
- ◆ Develop strategies to address funding inequities, thereby, increasing funding for culturally specific and ethnically managed services
- ◆ Involve, educate and coordinate with the broader treatment community who provide services our constituents

In local communities around the state, AACOFI plays a pivotal role in advising decision makers and putting forward the framework for policies on issues such as:

- ◆ Enhancing access to funding for black organizations
- ◆ Assisting emerging and established black organizations to continuously improve the quality of their services
- ◆ Enhancing culturally competency in serving black children and families
- ◆ Ensuring the Black community receives equitable services to address children and family issues in our communities.

Summary of Agency Activities in 2005-2006

For most of the fiscal year AACOFI achieved a number of critical successes towards fulfilling its mission.

Goal #1: Promote collaboration and coordination between African American and Pan-African human services organizations

Strategy 3: Establish collaborations between member agencies for grant funding

Strategy 4: Assist individuals/groups with like goals to form coalitions

- ♦ AACOFI launched its new website in July 2005 as a means to promote the agency and encourage interested organizations to join

Goal #3: Develop strategies to address funding inequities, thereby, increasing funding for culturally specific and ethnically managed services

Strategy 1: Lead and/or become actively involved in community efforts to ensure equity in access to funding and support for services and organizations that target Black/minority children and families

- ♦ As a follow up to its statewide conference, AACOFI representatives met with a delegation of Black legislators in November 2005 to introduce the organization's goals, secure assistance from legislators to find potential member organizations in their areas, and to partner with these legislators for political advocacy on behalf of troubled children and families throughout the state of Florida.
