ARTICLE VII:

Future directors shall be nominated by their predecessor or other directors. The board of directors shall approve the nominee. If the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, a vacancy on the board may be filled by approval of a majority of the directors then in office or by a sole remaining director. A person elected to fill a vacancy on the board shall hold office until the next election of the Board of Directors or until his or her death, resignation or removal from office.

ARTICLE VIII:

The corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE IX:

Notwithstanding any other provision (other than Article 8) of these Articles:

a. The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from United States income tax under 501 (c)(3) of the Code or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under 170 (c)(2) of the Code.

b. No part of the activities of The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

c. The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

d. No part of the net earnings of The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

e. In no event shall The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. be controlled directly or indirectly by one or more "disqualified persons" other than one or more organizations described in the Internal Revenue Codes for Tax Exempt organizations.

ARTICLE X:

To the full extent permitted by Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation or any other applicable laws presently or hereafter in effect, no director of The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its members, should the Corporation elect to have members in the future, for or with respect to any acts or omissions in the performance of his or her duties as a director of the Corporation. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing immediately prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE XI:

Upon the dissolution of The APOPDEL International Freedom House, Inc. assets shall be distributed for one or more of the exempt purposes set forth in Article IV (vi) hereof and, operated exclusively to lessen the burdens of government and promote the global public interest in the operational stability of the Internet, or shall be distributed to a governmental entity for such purposes, or for such other charitable and public purposes that lessen the burdens of government by providing for the operational stability of the Internet. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as such court shall determine, that are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes, unless no such corporation exists, and in such case any assets not disposed of shall be distributed to a 501(c)(3) corporation chosen by such court.

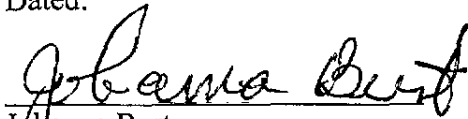

ARTICLE XII:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, if the Corporation determines that it will not be treated as a corporation exempt from federal income tax under 501(c)(3) of the Code, all references herein to 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE XIII:

The undersigned incorporator, hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the statements made in the foregoing Articles of Incorporation are true.
