Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: Annual Report—2005 / Waive Late Fee

Please find enclosed our Annual Report for 2005. We apologize for its lateness, but we did not receive the renewal certificate in the mail as it is accustomed to coming early in the year. When I called to have it sent, the document did arrived late, and did not have any information concerning the corporation. As you see, by the form being filed.

Secondly, I had secured, so I thought, an Accountant and a new Registered Agent, but was unable to locate him in April, when I traveled to the U.S. to have the filing done. I am now in the process of securing a Registered Agent in Florida, who is also an Accountant, or a professional who shall be able to handle all of our corporation with this department and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). I am present in the U.S. today on that mission, and will inform the Department as soon as the same is in place. But until that time, as Principal of the corporation, I am will act as Registered Agent. Presently, my address in the U.S. is ~~6505~~ Plunkett Street, 6505 Hollywood, Florida 33023

Respectfully,

Ms. S. Ali McIntosh
President
