To whom this concerns:

In regard to the documentation of forms required by state etc; there was some over- sight on our behalf understandingly so due to being hit back to back by the hurricanes within our county of Marion, which has been declared a federal disaster area. Due to rain, fallen trees, curfews, power outage and property damage etc; much of our mail and other things were misplaced and or put aside, and we are just now beginning to go through stuff, some of which was destroyed by water.

I'm requesting at this time that the re-instatement be waved on behalf of the church whereas we are few in number and Our financial assets are not the greatest as yet at this time. Our building has received structural & roof damage, and we have to raise money seemingly to get those things repaired unless someone will volunteer to do it free of charge.

I regret that the registered agent failed to properly read form in the beginning to properly fill required blank spaces.

Thanks in advance for your kind consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,
Shirley Chisholm -pastor
