Corporate Nature and Purposes

- A. This corporation is a nonprofit corporation, organized solely for general education, religious and charitable purposes and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized pursuant to the Florida Corporations Not for Profit Law set forth in Section 617 of the Florida Statutes and within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.
- B. The specific purpose of this corporation is to further the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and to engage in any lawful act or activity allowed for religious corporations including, but not limited to the following:
- a. To do all acts, including ordination of ministers of the Gospel, perform all functions, and carry on all activities permitted by the nonprofit corporation laws of the State of Florida or of any other State in which the Corporation is qualified to act;
 - b. To provide opportunities for regular public services for worship and Christian fellowship for those seeking to be included in the church corporate, the Body of Christ, gathering together in the name of Jesus Christ under the direction of this corporation;
 - c. To communicate the Christian gospel, teachings, and discipleship, as set forth in the Old and New Testament Scriptures of the Bible, by means of meetings, publications, advertising, correspondence and correspondence courses, audio and all media, whether now known or hereafter discovered, including, but not limited to: print, video and audio recordings, radio and television programs and productions, films, drama, and by any other means or media that may from time to time be decided;
 - d. To promote Christian discipleship, fellowship, love, education and Christian living to individuals and groups through individual teaching, preaching, spiritual counseling, music, and distribution of pamphlets, books, sound recordings, and other materials and media;

- e. To organize and send individuals and teams of Christian missionary workers for the purpose of evangelism, Christian education, establishing churches and discipleship training for the benefit of communities and the Christian church at large;
- f. To organize, set up, and carry on missions, groups, meetings, seminars, conferences, forums, exhibitions, courses, talks, functions and activities for the propagation of the Christian religion;
- g. To license and ordain ministers, after their qualification according to the requirements duly set forth in the By-laws of this corporation;
- h. To provide Christian schools for instruction and training for both children and adults;
- i. To promote and organize conferences, conventions and seminars for leaders of this church and of the Christian Church at large;
- j. To sponsor and organize recreation activities of whatsoever nature Christian and secular for the purpose of promoting the mental and physical health of the community, and as evangelistic outreach;
- k. To establish and operate Christian spiritual programs ministering recovery through spiritual means to those who are addicted to substances or behaviors and to those who are otherwise dysfunctional;
- l. To subscribe and promote the aims of any non-profit organization or society having similar purposes to all or any of the purposes of this Corporation;
- m. To accept donations, endorsements, pledges, loans, and to receive property by devise or bequest for all or any of the proposed purposes herein;
- n. To use all media, whether now known or hereafter discovered, including, but not limited to print, television, radio, audio and video recordings, for the promotion and advancement of the Corporation and to promote, advertise and generally make known the purposes and activities of the Corporation;
- o. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the above purposes, including to contract, rent, buy, sell, and/or occupy personal or real property and to have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on a non-profit corporation under the laws of Florida.
- p. To act with charitable concern for, and to help not only all associated with this church, but also all people in need of any help which this church can give, regardless of race, social positions, or Christian religious affiliations; to develop and carry out programs of ministry and help the poor, widowed, orphaned, afflicted, imprisoned, underprivileged or aged persons, both with and without this corporation;
- q. To provide counsel for individual, family and marital problems to promote lives that are healthy and fruitful by Biblical standards;
- r. To pray, to baptize believers in water; to anoint the sick with oil; to marry; to dedicate infants; to celebrate the Lord's supper; and to bury the dead;
- s. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the above purposes.

C. The corporation shall not have capital stock.

D. The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

E. The corporation elects to have no members. Any action which would otherwise require a vote of members shall require only a vote of the members of the Board of Directors, and no meeting or vote of members shall be required for this Corporation, any provision of the
