Re: FAITH TEMPLE MINISTRIES OF FLORIDA, INC.

Dear Ms. Blalock:

Please find enclosed the correspondence from you dated August 13, 2003 as well as the corresponding original Articles. In response to your correspondence, I called and spoke to Beth Register, who advised me that the name should be accepted. Ms. Register stated that, because Faith Temple Ministries, Inc. and Faith Temple Ministries of Florida, Inc. had substantially the same Board of Directors the name, with the addition of "of Florida", was acceptable. Therefore, please forward the accepted Certified Articles of Incorporation as soon as possible. If you have any questions please feel free to call me at the above telephone number.

Very Truly Yours,

Articles of Incorporation
Of
Faith Temple Ministries of Florida, Inc.
(A corporation not for profit)

FILED
03 AUG 28 AM 3:46
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

We, the undersigned subscribers, hereby form ourselves and our successors into a corporation not for profit under the corporate name of FAITH TEMPLE MINISTRIES OF FLORIDA, INC., and hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article One

Name

The name of this corporation shall be Faith Temple Ministries of Florida, Inc. which is herein after called the Corporation. 6551 GREENFERN LN JACKSONVILLE, FL 32277

Article Two

Religious-Not for Profit Organization

We of Faith Temple Ministries of Florida, Inc. publicly declare that we are a religious, not for profit organization, not being operated for financial gain or profit of any person or group, and all the net receipts of the aforementioned organization shall be used only for religious, charitable, and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The term for which this corporation shall exist shall be perpetual.

Article Three

Purpose

The purpose for which this corporation is formed shall be:

1. To preach and expound the Gospel of Jesus Christ, according to the Holy Scriptures, to educate and lead people in the way of salvation, goodness, righteousness, morality and temperance as taught in the Bible: The promotion of any missionary, educational or charitable enterprise.
2. To assume and share the responsibility of fulfilling the Great Commission: The Propagation of the Gospel and the evangelization of the nations.
3. To provide unity and fellowship among all the members of the Body of Christ.
4. To provide ways and means by which the above objectives may be obtained.
5. To receive, administer, disburse and invest gifts, devises, and bequests by or from any persons or corporations.
6. To issue bonds, notes, debentures, and evidences of indebtedness, and to secure the same by mortgage, deed of trust, or otherwise.

Article Four
Membership

All ministers and missionaries regardless of denomination, which believe in the principles, nature, and purpose of the corporation may make application to become a member. Renewal of membership is annual and is subject to reexamination.

Article Five
Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors of the corporation shall be a President, one or more Vice-Presidents (the number thereof to be determined by the Board), a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be elected in accordance with this Article. The Board shall elect the following officers: (1) One or more Vice Presidents, (2) a Secretary, (3) a Treasurer. The Board may appoint such other officers, including one or more Assistant Secretaries on one or more Assistant Treasures, as it shall deem desirable, such officers to have the authority and perform the duties prescribed, from time to time by the Board. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. The duties of each office shall be those usually performed by such officers unless specifically set forth in the By-Laws of the corporation.
2. Any Board member or officer may be removed by a three-quarter vote of the Board whenever in their judgment the best interest of the Corporation would be served thereby.
3. The President may be replaced by a three-quarter vote of the Board only on the grounds of immorality or incompetence. Otherwise, his replacement will be upon his retirement or resignation.
4. The President shall have final authority to employ or dismiss any staff member or office personnel.

Article Six
Indemnification of Officers and Employees

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or employee or former officer or employee of the corporation, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been such officer or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. The corporation may also reimburse to any officer or employee the majority of reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if it shall be found by a majority of committee composed of the Trustees not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum), that it was to the interest of the corporation that such officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which such officer or employee may be entitled under any By-Law agreement, or otherwise.

Article Seven
Personal Liability

Officers and members of the corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts and liabilities of the corporation.

Article Eight
Contracts

The Board of Directors, except as in these By-Laws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or agent to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation and such authority may be general or confined to specific instance; and unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power of authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit or render it liable pecuniary for any purpose or for any amount.

Article Nine
Amendments

These By-Laws may only be amended or repealed at a meeting of the Board of Directors duly called for the specific purpose of amending or repealing the same and carried by a two-third vote.

Article Ten
Dissolution

This corporation may be dissolved only pursuant to the agreement of the Board of Trustees. Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located. Exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Acceptance by Registered Agent

I, Dwight Martin, of 6551 Greenfern Lane, Jacksonville, Duvall County, Florida 32277, do hereby accept appointment as Registered Agent of FAITH TEMPLE MINISTRIES OF FLORIDA, INC., as a corporation not for profit, together with the duties and responsibilities attaching to such appointment.
