ARTICLE IX: The Corporation shall not have any capital stock, and the terms of membership shall be such as are stated in the bylaws of the Corporation. This Corporation shall be a non-profit Corporation.

ARTICLE X: Management of the Corporation shall be vested in the Corporation's Board of Directors, the members of which shall be not less than one. The number and method of election of the directors of the Corporation who shall serve following the terms of the initial directors of the Corporation shall be as stated in the bylaws.

ARTICLE XI: No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third thereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a Corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE XII: Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, to such Corporation or Corporations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt Corporation or Corporations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Upon dissolution of this Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding Section of any future Federal Tax Code, or shall be distributed to the Federal Government, or to a state or local government for public purpose.

ARTICLE XIII: The Corporation shall have the power to establish other branches, acquire, own, maintain and use its assets for the purposes for which it is organized; to raise funds by legal means for the encouragement of its purposes; to acquire, hold, own, use and dispose of real or personal property in connection with the purposes of the Corporation, to exercise all powers necessary or convenient to the furtherance of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized; and to exercise all powers granted to a Corporation not for profit under Florida law. In addition to the powers specified, the Corporation shall have the additional powers specified in its bylaws

ARTICLE XIV: Any other provisions of this instrument notwithstanding, the trustees shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal revenue Code or 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws. Any other provisions of this instrument notwithstanding, the trustees shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws; nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws; nor make any investments in such manner as to incur tax liability under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws; not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XV: No member of the board of directors of the Corporation who is a volunteer director, shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under the General Corporation Law, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

a) The Corporation assumes all liability to any person, other than the Corporation, for all acts or omissions of a director who is a volunteer director, as defined in the Act, incurred in the good faith performance of the director's duties. However, the Corporation shall not be considered to have assumed any liability to the extent that such assumption is inconsistent with the status of the Corporation as an Corporation described in IRS 501(c)(3) or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code

b) If the Act is amended after the filing of these articles of incorporation to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors of nonprofit Corporations, then the liability of members of the board of directors, in addition to that described herein, shall be assumed by the Corporation or eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Act as so amended. Such an elimination, limitation, or assumption of liability is not effective to the extent that it is inconsistent with the status of the Corporation as an Corporation described in IRS 501(c)(3) or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No amendment or repeal of Article IX shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any member of the board of directors of this Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions occurring before the effective date of any such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE XVI: The Corporation assumes the liability for all acts or omissions of a nondirector volunteer if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The volunteer was acting or reasonably believed he or she was acting within the scope of his or her authority.
2. The volunteer was acting in good faith.
3. The volunteer's conduct did not amount to gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct.
4. The volunteer's conduct was not an intentional tort.

ARTICLE XVII: The Board of Directors of the Corporation may amend these Articles of Incorporation, as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its business and the carrying out of its purposes. Upon written or oral notice, the Articles of Incorporation may be amended, altered, or rescinded by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, in accordance with procedures established by the Bylaws.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated Corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
