ARTICLE III
Purposes

The Corporation is a non-profit corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and is not formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain.

The purpose of the Corporation is to act and operate as an accredited church of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, a Colorado non-profit corporation, and shall according act only under the ecclesiastical authority and subject to the usages, doctrines and teachings of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, promulgating such doctrines and teachings, preaching the Gospel to every creature, edifying the Christians through the education of God's word, promoting spiritual fellowship among God's people on the basis of the biblical faith, and promoting religious activities and to further other religious, educational, and charitable work to that end.

ARTICLE IV
Restrictions on Powers

No part of the assets, income, profits, or net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any of its members, directors, trustees, or officers, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and, if required by law, the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE V
Bylaws

The Corporation shall conduct its business in accordance with (i) the Uniform Constitution for Accredited Churches ("Constitution") as set forth in the Manual of The Christian and Missionary Alliance as it may be amended by the General Council from time to time; and (ii) any supplementary bylaws that may be adopted by the Corporation pursuant to the Constitution. The Constitution and any such supplementary bylaws collectively shall constitute the bylaws of the Corporation, and shall be collectively referred to herein as the "Bylaws."

ARTICLE VI
Members

The Corporation shall have Members as established in its Bylaws. The categories of membership, qualifications for membership and the manner of admission shall be as set forth in and regulated by the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VII
Board of Directors

The management of the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the Members of the Corporation as provided for in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII Dissolution

Upon the dissolutions of the Corporation, or upon the Corporation's termination as an accredited church of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, all of the Corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be distributed to and become the property of the incorporated or supervising body of The Christian and Missionary Alliance within whose ecclesiastical jurisdiction said Corporation is located provided that at such time the incorporated or supervising body to receive any assets of the Corporation is itself an exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended or supplemented. If the incorporated or supervising body is not, at the time of dissolution, an exempt organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or is no longer in existence, all of the Corporation's assets remaining after payment of or provision for all of its liabilities shall be paid or transferred to one or more exempt religious organizations that are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In such case, the organizations to receive such property shall be designated by the board of directors of The Christian and Missionary Alliance or its successor.

ARTICLE IX Amendments

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended only by the Members of the Corporation. Any amendments to Article V (Bylaws) must be approved by either The Christian and Missionary Alliance or the incorporated or supervising body of The Christian and Missionary Alliance within whose ecclesiastical jurisdiction said Corporation is located.
