ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

The Marion Film and Visual Arts Foundation, Inc. is an outreach and educational foundation focusing on educating and enriching the Citizens of Ocala and the surrounding community, Marion County, and the State of Florida through the magic of film. The foundation will revitalize and renovate the Marion Theatre located in Downtown Ocala, Florida and will, in cooperation with the City of Ocala, offer numerous educational and cultural programs to the community.

The programs offered will include films and plays that deal with social, multi-cultural, and community issues with Q&A sessions and panel discussions following these special screenings. The Theatre will also offer seminars, workshops (including workshops for young film makers), exhibits and events that target children/students, women, seniors, under served communities and minorities. These educational programs will serve area schools and educational institutions from pre-school to college.
