- B. To have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed, or in any other manner reproduced; provided, however, such seal shall always contain the words "corporation not for profit."
- C. To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated.
- D. To modify any restriction or condition on the distribution of funds for any specified charitable purposes or to specified organizations if, in the sole judgment of the Board of Directors (without the approval of any trustee, custodian, or agent), such restriction or condition becomes, in effect, unnecessary, incapable of fulfillment, or inconsistent with the charitable needs of the areas served by the Corporation, notwithstanding any conflicting formal or informal understanding or any provision in any instrument that creates or adds a fund or trust to the Corporation or evidences any gift, bequest, or devise to the Corporation or such fund or trust.

Upon the exercise of the power to replace any participating trustee, custodian or agent, the Board of Directors shall have the power to select a successor trustee, custodian or agent to whose custody the fund or funds held by the former trustee, custodian or agent shall be transferred.

(i) In determining whether there is a reasonable return of net income there shall be excluded from such determination such assets as are held for the active conduct of this community trust's exempt activities; and such determination shall be made separately with respect to each restricted fund and shall be made in the aggregate with respect to the unrestricted funds of this community trust. (ii) If it appears that there may be grounds for exercising the powers described in this paragraph G with respect to any fund the Board of Directors shall notify the participating trustee, custodian or agent involved and provide a reasonable opportunity for explanation and/or correction. Before exercising this power, the Board of Directors may seek advice of legal counsel as to whether a breach or failure has been committed under the laws of the State of Florida. The Board of Directors shall exercise a power described in this paragraph G only upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the members of the Board of Directors.
