Pursuant to Section 617.1007, Florida Statutes, the Articles of Incorporation of Calusa Island Village Property Owners Association, Inc., a Florida corporation not for profit, which was originally incorporated under the same name on October 16, 2003 are hereby amended and restated in their entirety. All amendments included herein have been adopted pursuant to Section 617.1002, Florida Statutes, and there is no discrepancy between the corporation's Articles of Incorporation as heretofore amended and the provisions of these Amended and Restated Articles other than the inclusion of amendments adopted pursuant to Section 617.1006 and the omission of matters of historical interest. The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of Calusa Island Village Property Owners Association, Inc., shall henceforth be as follows:

ARTICLE I

NAME: The name of the corporation, herein called the "Association", is Calusa Island Village Property Owners Association, Inc., and its address is c/o Spinnaker Cay Property Management, P.O. Box 1808, Marco Island, Florida 34146.

PROHIBITION AGAINST ISSUANCE OF STOCK AND DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME: The Association shall never have nor issue any shares of stock, nor shall the Association distribute any part of its income, if any, to its members, directors or officers. All monies and title to all properties acquired by the Association and the proceeds thereof shall be held only for the benefit of the members in accordance with the provision of these Articles and the Bylaws of the Association. Nothing herein, however, shall be construed to prohibit the Association from conferring benefits upon its members in accordance with its purposes, or from making any payments or distributions to members of monies or properties permitted by Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, or a statute of similar import. The Association may, however, reimburse its directors, officers and members for expenses authorized and approved by the Board of Directors and incurred for and on behalf of the Master Association and may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its directors, officers and members for actual services rendered to the Master Association as authorized and approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

POWERS: The Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers and duties of a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, except as limited or modified by these Articles, the Declaration of Condominium, the Bylaws or the Florida Condominium Act; and it shall have all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to said Declaration as it may hereafter be amended, including but not limited to the following:

- (A) To make and collect assessments against members of the Association to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the Association, and to use the funds in the exercise of its powers and duties.
- (B) To protect, maintain, repair, replace and operate the common areas within Calusa Island Village and the Calusa Island Village One, Calusa Island Village Two and Calusa Island Village Three condominium properties.
- (C) To purchase insurance upon the condominium properties and Association property for the protection of the Association and its members.
- (D) To reconstruct improvements after casualty and to make further improvements of the condominium property.

- (I) To employ accountants, attorneys, architects, and other professional personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Common Properties and the Condominiums.
- (J) To enter into agreements, or acquire leaseholds, memberships, and other possessory, ownership or use interests in lands or facilities such as country clubs, golf courses, marinas, and other recreational facilities. It has this power whether or not the lands or facilities are contiguous to the lands of the Common Properties and the Condominiums, if they are intended to provide enjoyment, recreation, or other use or benefit to the unit owners.
- (K) To borrow money without limit as to amount if necessary to perform its other functions hereunder.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be available if a judgement or other final adjudication establishes that his actions or omissions to act were material to the cause adjudicated and involved:

- (A) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Association, in a proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgement in its favor.
- (B) A violation of criminal law, unless the Director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his action was unlawful or had reasonable cause to believe his action was lawful.
- (C) A transaction from which the Director or officer derived an improper personal benefit.

In the event of a settlement, the right to indemnification shall not apply unless the Board of Directors approves such settlement as being in the best interest of the Association.
