Re: Incorporator

Attn: Thelma,

As mention earlier in our conversation today. The original Article of Incorporation that was submitted previously had Paul Garcia as the Incorporator. Mr. Garcia will be a mentor in the program as well as an instructor. By no means is he the incorporator.

I LaVerne K. White hold both position as the registered agent and Incorporator for Small World Youth Services, Incorporated. You did say that part can't be change because it's not actually an officer position, but I could sign off as the incorporator without it affecting anything. All other changes that IRS requested are included in this hard copy.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "LaVerne K. White". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.

LaVerne K. White

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
SMALL WORLD YOUTH SERVICES, INCORPORATED

The undersigned, acting as incorporator(s) of a corporation pursuant to Chapter 617.0202, Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is:

Small World Youth Services, Incorporated

ARTICLE II

The principle place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

909 Cass Street
Deland, Florida 32720

ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

This organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of these purposes.

No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for 501(c)(3) purposes.

The corporation is organized to provide and administer services, as outlined in the by-laws of the corporation, to youth that are in 6th – 12th grades, that are from a broad geographical spectrum, that are in need of educational, social, and resource intervention through highly structured after-school programs all within a faith-based framework of God's love.

These programs and services are intentionally designed to redirect negative behavior through mentoring, interpersonal skills development, and constant communication with the students' parents/legal guardians, school and judicial systems (when appropriate). The end result produces well-rounded individuals which have developed into self-supportive, successful young adults with strong abilities to contribute to their families, communities, and society in general.
