E. If amending or adding additional Articles, enter change(s) here:
(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

Article III para 1 is amended to read as follows: This corporation is founded exclusively for charitable educational purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code Sec 501(c)(3); namely : To promote educational opportunities for African American students by assisting them in any way possible. Such assistance will include (but not be limited to) providing educational counseling, private lessons, social events, educational excursions, home visitations, neighborhood interventions and inspirational activities to encourage African American youth and their families to strive for excellence. It will likewise seek to advance the knowledge, skills and professionalism of educators who serve the African American community by providing a forum through which to share knowledge and experiences. It will provide seminars, courses, workshops and activities to foster and enhance the skills, knowledge and professionalism of said educators. This corporation is empowered, at the sole discretion of the directors, to provide direct cash grants for the purpose of averting the deterioration of students or their families. It will strive to raise awareness in the community concerning the importance of education and the challenges faced by African American students on their journeys to success and self fulfillment. The directors and officers of this corporation are empowered to carry out any other actions which are deemed by them to be conducive to the attainment of the aforementioned goals and objectives.

Article IV para 2c is amended to read as follows: In the event of this corporation's dissolution, the directors will --after clearing all debts and liabilities-- distribute any remaining funds or assets of other charitable corporation recognized as such by the IRS under section 501(c)(3) that have similar exempt purposes to those of this corporation.
