ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
Faith Outreach Deliverance Ministries, Inc.

(A Corporation not for profit)

FILED
03 DEC -5 PM 4: 32
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and the Florida General Corporation Act, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be Faith Outreach Deliverance Ministries, Inc. (A Not for Profit organization).

ARTICLE II

This corporation shall have a perpetual existence. The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation shall be 802 E. Emma Street, Tampa, Florida 33603.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. This is a non-profit corporation organized solely for general charitable purposes pursuant to Part I of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

Section 2. The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is organized and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it, are to provide an evangelical gospel ministry and other religious activities, particularly as follows:

- (a) To organize, operate, and maintain a church, the object of which shall be to provide a redemptive fellowship in which the Word of God is preached by those divinely called to administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Baptism according to Christ's own appointment; to advance spiritual growth and enlightenment, moral and personal purity among its own students and people of the community in which it is located; to establish, maintain and conduct missionary enterprises for the furtherance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the United States according to the bylaws; to establish, conduct, maintain, control and supervise churches and other institutions connected therewith of a religious, educational and charitable benevolent character which although they may have not been granted formal Charters, shall, nevertheless, be created as a Faith Outreach Deliverance Ministries Church, and in accordance with all other provisions contained in the Charter; to prepare Christians for the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; to publish and disseminate religious newspapers, books, tracts, and records, the like, and to obtain funds by gifts, collections and requests and otherwise for the dispensing of religious literature; to use all lawful and usual methods and means of education and aid of persons who personally attend, to hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

- (b) Make donations for the public's welfare or for religious, scientific, educational or other similar purposes.
- (c) Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized, subject to the requirements of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors. The number of Directors of the corporation shall initially be four (4); provided, however, that such number may be changed by bylaws duly adopted by the members.

Section 2. The Directors named herein as the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first meeting of members, at which time an election of Directors shall be held. Directors elected at the first annual meeting, and all times thereafter, shall serve for a term of (1) year until the next annual meeting of members, or until the election and qualification of their respective successors, except as herein otherwise provided for filling vacancies. Directors must be members of the corporation at the time of election.

Section 3. Annual meetings shall be held on the first Friday in December of each year at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place or places as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time by resolution.

(a) Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board, and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provisions of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of this corporation authorize the Directors to so act. Such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

Section 4. The Board of Directors shall elect the following officers: President, Vice President, and Secretary and such other officers as the Bylaws of this corporation may authorize the Directors to elect from time to time. Initially, such officers shall be elected at the first annual meeting of the Board of Directors. The following persons shall serve as corporate officers:
