Dear Sir:

We recently became incorporated with the State of Florida as a non-profit status corporation named Richard Ludden Job Placement Services, Inc. You returned a copy of our Articles of Incorporation and we completed Form 1023 for filing with the Internal Revenue Service. The Internal Revenue Service has requested that we amend our Articles of Incorporation Article III and Article VIII and have them sent to your office to obtain a certificate from the State authorities showing the actual date on which the amendment was approved by the State. The Internal Revenue Service has requested that we respond to them by August 5, 2004. A completed copy of your downloaded Amendment Form is attached. A check in the amount of $35.00 is enclosed.

Thank you very much for your assistance with this request.

Sincerely,

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

Richard Ludden Job Placement Services, Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

The general purpose of this corporation in fulfilling the above organizational goal shall be to assist Vocational Rehabilitation individuals who have barriers to employment in the process of acquiring employment with the State of Florida or other employers. To satisfy this purpose, this corporation will transact the following types of activities:

1. To help these Vocational Rehabilitation individuals in the writing of resumes and in the job-seeking skills needed in interviewing for the potential jobs.
2. To engage in counseling and training endeavors for the individuals which will promote the general well being and the motivation to succeed in the job placement activity.
3. To conduct interviews with these individuals to determine employment needs and to determine the best methods of meeting these needs.
4. To assist in the evaluation of resumes produced by the individuals and to help tailor make these to satisfy the specific jobs which are sought by the individuals.
5. To provide the opportunity for the individuals to practice completing job application forms so that they might maximize their value in the job seeking process.
6. To conduct business, have one or more offices, and buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of real and personal property in the State of Florida for the purpose of promoting the primary function of the corporation.
7. To contract debts and borrow money, issue and sell or pledge bonds, notes, and other evidence of indebtedness, and execute such mortgages, transfers or corporate property, or other instruments to secure the payment of corporate indebtedness as the law allows.
8. To comply with the indicated statement of the State of Florida to require Vocational Rehabilitation Independent Contractors who have been performing services with the State of Florida to secure the not-for-profit corporation status so that they may continue to function in the service capacity with the State.
9. To avoid any political propaganda or activity in the fulfillment of the stated objectives.

No part of the net earnings on this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for service rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a charitable organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a charitable organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Revenue Law).

ARTICLE VIII: DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as the court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
