ARTICLE III POWERS

The powers of the Association shall include and shall be governed by the following provisions:

3.1 General. The Association shall have all of the common-law and statutory powers of a corporation not-for-profit under the Laws of Florida that are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

3.2 Enumeration. The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the condominium pursuant to the Declaration and as it may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to the following:

a. To make and collect assessments against members as unit owners to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the condominium and to assess reasonable late charges against unit owners delinquent in the payment of assessments and maintenance payments.

b. To use the proceeds of assessments and charges in the exercise of its powers and duties.

c. To buy or lease both real and personal property for condominium use, and to sell or otherwise dispose of property so acquired.

d. To maintain, repair, replace and operate the condominium property and property acquired or leased by the Association for use by unit owners.

e. To purchase insurance upon the condominium property and insurance for the protection of the Association and its members as unit owners.

f. To reconstruct and repair improvements after casualty and to construct additional improvements of the condominium property.

g. To make and amend reasonable regulations respecting the use and appearance of the condominium property and the Units. ~~in the condominium; provided, however, that all those regulations and their amendments shall be approved by not less than sixty (60%) percent of the votes of the entire membership of the Association before they shall become effective.~~

h. To approve or disapprove the leasing of units as may be provided by the Declaration of Condominium and the By-Laws.

i. To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act, the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles and the By-Laws of the Association for the use of the property in the condominium.

j. To contract with any person, firm or entity for the operation, maintenance or repair of the condominium property; provided however, that any such contract shall not be in conflict with the powers and duties of the Association or the rights of the unit owners as provided in the Florida Condominium Act and the Declaration of Condominium of SOUTH RIVER VILLAGE THREE CONDOMINIUM.

k. To contract for the management or operation of portions of the common elements susceptible to separate management or operation.

l. To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the condominiums.

3.3 Purchase of Units. The Association shall not have the power to purchase a unit of the condominium except at sales in foreclosure of liens for assessments for common expenses, at which sales the Association shall bid no more than the amount secured by its lien (including fees and costs). This provision shall not be changed without unanimous approval of the members and the joinder of all record owners of mortgages upon the condominium.

3.4 Condominium Property. All funds and the title of all properties acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held in trust for the members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws.

3.5 Distribution of Income. The Association shall make no distribution of income to its members, directors or officers.

3.6 Limitation. The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and the By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERS

4.1 Membership. The members of the Association shall consist of all of the record owners of units in the condominium, and after termination of the condominium shall consist of those who are members at the time of the termination and their successors and assigns.

4.2 Evidence. The change of membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the Public Records of Martin County, Florida, of a deed or other instrument transferring ownership of the unit.

4.3 Assignment. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to the unit for which that share is held.

4.4 Voting. A member of the Association shall be entitled to one vote for each unit owned by him. In the event that more than one person owns a particular unit, the owners thereof shall be entitled to cast one singular vote appurtenant to said unit.

ARTICLE V DIRECTORS

5.1 Number and Qualification. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a board consisting of ~~the number of directors determined by the By-Laws, but not less than three directors, and in the absence of that determination shall consist of three~~ five (5) directors. Each director shall have a recorded ownership interest in a Unit within South River Village Three Condominium.

5.2 Duties and Powers. All of the duties and powers of the Association existing under the Condominium Act, Declaration of Condominium, these Articles and By-Laws shall be exercised exclusively by the Board of Directors, its agents, contractors or employees, subject only to approval by unit owners when that is specifically required.

5.3 Election; Removal. Directors of the Association shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the manner determined by the By-Laws. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

~~5.4 Election of Directors. The election of directors shall be pursuant to Florida Statutes §718.301. When unit owners other than the Developer own fifteen (15%) percent or more of the proposed 84 units (or 13 units), the unit owners other than Developer shall be entitled to elect no less than one third (1/3) of the Directors. The election of a majority of Directors of the Association by members of the Association other than the Developer of the condominium shall not be held until three months after the Developer has closed the sales of 76 units or ninety (90%) percent of the units, or until the Developer elects to terminate its control of the condominium, or until after December 1, 1985, or until the Developer elects to terminate its control of the Directorship of the Association, whichever comes first.~~

~~5.5 First Directors. The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Directors who shall hold office until their successors are elected and have qualified, or until removed, are as follows:~~
