ARTICLE IV: PURPOSE

The primary purpose for which this Corporation is formed is to provide for public worship of God; promote the teachings and practices of sound Christian living; and to provide spiritual leadership and community outreach. The foregoing statement shall not be deemed to preclude a statement of general purpose of the Corporation and shall not in any way limit or restrict the power of the Corporation to engage in other lawful business enterprises and activities that are consistent with the mission of the organization.

The purposes for which this Corporation is established shall be consistent with the recognized purposes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, such as charitable, religious, educational, or scientific causes. The Corporation shall not carry on any activities prohibited by a tax exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

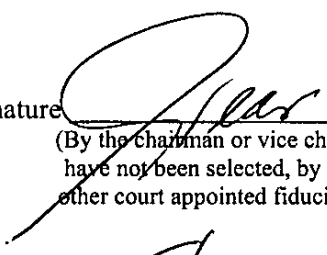

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: July 7, 2006

Effective date if applicable: July 7, 2006
