Section 1. The purpose of this Association is to act as the governing "Association" with the meaning of the Condominium Act (Chapter 718, Florida Statutes) for Juliana Village 3A, a Condominium, and Juliana Village 3B, a Condominium, and Juliana Village 3C, a Condominium (the "Condominium"), located in Collier County, Florida. Note: Unless otherwise noted the use of the singular term Condominium is deemed to be plural and include all of the Condominiums.

Section 2.

(a) To make and collect assessments against members of the Association for the purpose of defraying the charges and expenses of the Condominiums and of all other properties the Association may hold, by whatever means, and the operation of the Association. Assessments paid by Unit owners shall be held in trust by the Association and, except for expenses of the Association common to all Condominiums, used solely and exclusively for the particular Condominium from which the assessments were collected to pay: (1) the cost of repair of the particular Condominium's property and other costs related thereto, and (2) the particular Condominium's share of the cost of administration of the affairs of the Association, including payment of applicable taxes and the preservation of the Association's existence, to the extent properly allocable to the performance of the Association's duties under the Declarations of Condominium (all thereof, in the event that the Association undertakes no other activities), and (3) to pay all other common expenses as described in Declarations of Condominium. To the extent not expended in the year in which paid, assessments shall continue to be held in trust by the Association for the benefit of the members to be expended solely for the aforesaid purposes or, upon any termination of the Condominium, the unexpended portion shall be added to the common surplus for disbursement to the members of the terminated Condominium only or for maintenance reserves of the terminated Condominium only, at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Further, it is intended that after the completion of a contemplated merger this Association shall operate as a multi-condominium Association as provided in Chapter 718, Florida Statutes.

(Note: Sections (b) through (s) are unchanged.)

(t) All powers of the Association conferred by the Declarations of Condominium and Bylaws are incorporated into these Articles by reference.

ARTICLE VII – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The affairs and business of this Association shall be managed and conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) persons except as hereinafter provided not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) persons; provided, at all times there may only be an odd number of Directors on the Board. Anything to the contrary contained herein or elsewhere notwithstanding, following the merger of Juliana Village 3A Condominium Association, Inc., Juliana Juliana Village 3B Condominium Association, Inc., (hereinafter “merged corporations”), into and with Juliana Village 3C Condominium Association, Inc., (hereinafter “surviving corporation”), the Directors of the merged corporations shall automatically become Directors of the surviving corporation and the Board of Directors of the surviving corporation shall be increased to nine (9) persons until the first annual members’ meeting of the surviving corporation following the merger. At the first annual members’ meeting of the surviving corporation following the merger all of the Directors’ terms shall expire and a new Board consisting of five (5) persons shall be elected. It is the intent of this provision to insure that each Condominium has at least one unit owner serving as a Director on the Board at all times. Therefore, one (1) Director shall be elected from each of the three (3) Condominiums to fill the 1st, 2nd and 3rd seats on the Board. (Note: According to law all owners are entitled to vote for all Directors so the ballot shall segregate the candidates by Condominium). The 4th and 5th seats on the Board shall be elected at large from any Condominium.

ARTICLE X – AMENDMENTS TO THESE ARTICLES

Section 1. Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Board of Directors. The resolution shall then be presented to the membership of the Association. A majority vote of the voting interests cast at a duly called meeting shall be necessary to amend the Articles of Incorporation. All amendments must be approved by at least a majority (50%+1) of the total voting interests in the Association.

Section 2. No amendment shall make any change in the qualifications for membership without approval in writing of all members. Such an amendment shall also be subject to the written consent of all record holders of mortgages upon any Condominium property or upon property held by the Association in accordance with the provisions of the Declarations of Condominium. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declarations of Condominium, or which in any way would eliminate, modify, prejudice, abridge or otherwise adversely affect any rights, benefits, privileges or priorities granted or reserved to the Developer under these Articles, Bylaws or the Declarations.

ARTICLE XI - VOTING

Section 1. Each Condominium Unit shall be entitled to one vote at the Association meetings, notwithstanding that the same owner may own more than one Unit or that Units may be joined together and occupied by one owner. In the event of a joint ownership of a Condominium Unit, the vote to which that Unit is entitled may be exercised by one of the such joint owners by agreement of the remainder of the joint owners and in accordance with terms of the Declaration of Condominium; however, no split voting shall be permitted. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, when the Board determines in its sole discretion that a vote of only the owners in one particular Condominium is required the quorum requirement for the meeting at which the vote is conducted shall be a majority of the voting interests in that Condominium. At such meetings a majority vote of the number of voting interests of Unit Owners in that Condominium, present and voting on any matter shall be controlling, provided a quorum is present, in person or by proxy, except for such decisions as may by F.S. 718 or the governing documents require a larger percentage in which case the percentage required in F.S. 718 or the governing documents shall govern.

ARTICLE XVI

Section 1. CORPORATE MERGER. It is contemplated that Juliana Village 3A Condominium Association, Inc., and Juliana Village 3B Condominium Association, Inc., will merge with and into Juliana Village 3C Condominium Association, Inc., which shall be deemed the Surviving Corporation and which shall thereafter be known as Providence Village Condominium Association, Inc. In the event that the corporate merger is not approved, or the owners in one or more of the Condominiums in the effected Condominiums do not approve the requisite amendments to their Condominium Documents, then the amendments to these Articles shall be void only as to those Condominiums which have not given the requisite approvals. In the event the merger and all requisite amendments are approved, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the governing documents of any of the Condominiums, all references to the "Association" shall mean the surviving corporation and all references to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws shall mean the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the surviving corporation. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to adopt amendments to the Condominium Documents of the Condominiums to effectuate the corporate merger in the event that any necessary amendments are inadvertently omitted from those amendments voted on by the membership.
