interested; shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or a majority thereof, prior to the making thereof. No contract or other transaction between this Association and any other such person, firm, or corporation, and no act of this Association shall in any way be affected or invalidated thereby. Any Director of this Association, who is also a director or officer of such other corporation or who is so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of this Association, which shall authorize any such contract or transaction with like force and effect, as if he or she were not a director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

Section 4. Emergency Powers. In addition to the emergency powers granted by Chapter 617 Florida Statutes and the Condominium Act, the following shall apply to the extent not viewed to be in conflict with the Condominium Act:

ARTICLE III - QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS AND THE MANNER OF THEIR ADMISSION

Section 1. At such time as the purchase price is paid and the deed to a Unit is issued, the Owner thereof shall become a Member.

Section 2. Ownership of a Unit shall be a prerequisite to exercising any rights as a Member. A Unit may be owned by one or more persons or by a corporation, association, partnership, or trust.

Section 3. Membership shall not be transferable, except as provided herein or in the Declarations of Condominium. The membership of any Unit Owner shall terminate upon the termination of the Condominium, or upon transfer of his, her, or its ownership in the Unit, provided the transfer is accomplished in accordance with all provisions of the Declarations of Condominium. The transferor's membership shall automatically transfer and be vested in the new Owner succeeding to the ownership interest in the Unit, subject to a lien thereon for all undischarged assessments, charges, and expenses. The Association may rely on a recorded deed as evidence of transfer of a Unit and thereupon terminate the transferor's membership and recognize the membership of the transferee.

ARTICLE IV - TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Association shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE V - OFFICERS

Section 1. The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and any assistants to such officers as the Board of Directors may deem appropriate from time to time. The same person may hold two offices.

Section 2. Officers of the Association shall be elected at the annual organizational meeting of the Board of Directors and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Any Officer may be removed at any meeting by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors either with or without cause, and any vacancy in any office may be filled by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof.

ARTICLE VI – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The affairs and business of this Association shall be managed and conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of five (5) persons. The system of staggered terms previously established shall be maintained. All Directors shall be elected for two (2) year terms that expire at final adjournment of the Annual Members' Meeting at, or in conjunction with, which his, her, or its successor is to be elected, and there shall always be one (1) Director representing each of the three (3) Condominiums and two (2) at large Directors from any of the three (3) Condominiums on the Board.

Section 2. Election of Directors shall be held at the Annual Members' Meeting, except as provided herein to the contrary. At the expiration of the term of each initial Director, his, her or its' successor shall be elected by the Members of the Association to serve for a term of two years,. A Director shall hold office until his, her, or its successor has been elected and qualified.

Section 3. The election shall be by written ballot, electronically or voting machine and by a plurality of the votes cast, each Owner voting being entitled to cast his, her or its votes for each of as many nominees as there are vacancies to be filled. There shall be no cumulative voting.

Section 4. Directors may be removed with or without cause and replaced as provided in the Condominium Act.

Section 5. Meetings of the Board of Directors at which a quorum of the Directors is present shall be open to all Association Members. Any Association Member may tape record or videotape meetings of the Board of Directors subject to reasonable Rules adopted by the Board of Directors and the Division of Florida Land Sales, Condominiums and Mobile Homes. The right to attend such meetings includes the right to speak at such meetings with reference to all designated agenda items. The Board of Directors may adopt reasonable Rules governing the frequency, duration, and manner of Unit Owner statements. Adequate notice of all meetings, which notice shall specifically incorporate an identification of agenda items, shall be posted conspicuously on the Condominium Property at least 48 continuous hours preceding the meeting, except in an emergency. However, written notice of any meeting at which nonemergency special assessments, or at which amendment to Rules and Regulations regarding Unit use will be proposed, discussed, or approved, shall be mailed or electronically delivered to Association Members and posted conspicuously on the Condominium Property not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting. Evidence of compliance with this 14-day notice requirement shall be made by an affidavit executed by the Secretary of the Association or designated person providing the notice of the Association meeting and filed among the official records of the Association. Upon notice to the Association Members, the Board shall by duly adopted rule designate a specific location on the Condominium or Association Property upon which all notices of Board meetings shall be posted. Notice of any meeting in which regular assessments against Unit Owners are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain a statement that assessments will be considered and the nature of any such assessments. Meetings of a committee to take final action on behalf of the Board or make recommendations to the Board regarding the Association budget are subject to the provisions of this paragraph. Meetings of a committee that do not take final action on behalf of the Board or make recommendations to the Board regarding the Association budget are not subject to the provisions of this paragraph.

ARTICLE VII - INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

All Officers and Directors shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees (including fees for appellate proceedings), reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding or settlement thereof in which they may become involved by reason of holding such office, other than proceedings or claims resulting from willful misconduct or bad faith. The Association shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of all Officers and Directors against any liability asserted against them or incurred by them in their capacity as Officers or Directors or arising out of their status as such. During any proceeding, the Association shall advance the attorney's fees and costs on behalf of the indemnified parties.

Section 1. Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed by a resolution adopted by majority vote of the Board of Directors. The resolution shall then be presented to the membership of the Association. All amendments must be approved by at least a majority (50%+1) of the total Voting Interests in the Association.

Section 2. No amendment shall make any change in the qualifications for Membership without approval in writing of all Members. Such an amendment shall also be subject to the written consent of all record holders of mortgages upon any Condominium Property or upon property held by the Association in accordance with the provisions of the Declarations of Condominium. No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declarations of Condominium.

ARTICLE X - VOTING

Section 1. Each Condominium Unit shall be entitled to one vote at the Association meetings for each Unit owned. In the event of a joint ownership of a Condominium Unit, the vote to which that Unit is entitled may be exercised by one of such joint Owners by agreement of the remainder of the joint Owners and in accordance with the terms of the Declaration of Condominium; however, no split voting shall be permitted. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, when the Board determines in its sole discretion that a vote of only the Owners in one particular Condominium is required, the quorum requirement for the meeting at which the vote is conducted shall be a majority of the voting interests in that Condominium. At such meetings, a majority vote of the number of voting interests of Unit Owners in that Condominium, present and voting on any matter shall be controlling, provided a quorum is present, in person or by proxy, except for such decisions as may be required by the Condominium Act or the governing documents require a larger percentage, in which case the percentage required in the Condominium Act or the governing documents shall govern.

Section 2. Votes may be cast either in person, by proxy as specifically provided herein or by a voting trustee or trustees, each of whom may, but need not be an Officer or Director of the Association. Limited proxies shall be used for votes taken to waive or reduce reserves in accordance with the Condominium Act; for votes taken to waive financial statement requirements as provided by the Condominium Act; for votes taken to amend the Declarations of Condominium pursuant to the Condominium Act; for votes taken to amend these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Association pursuant to the Condominium Act; and for any other matter for which the Condominium Act requires or permits a vote of the Unit Owners. General proxies may be used for other matters for which limited proxies are not required and may also be used in voting for non-substantive changes to items for which a limited proxy is required and given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no proxy, limited or general, shall be used in the election of the members of the Board of Directors. General proxies may be used for other matters for which limited proxies are not required and may also be used in voting for non-substantive changes to items for which a limited proxy is required and given. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjointed meetings thereof. In no event, shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Association Member executing it. Proxyholders must be Members of the Association.

ARTICLE XI. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. No Officer, Director or Member shall be personally liable for any debt or other obligation of the Association, except as provided in the Declarations of Condominium.

Section 2. The Association shall not be operated for profit. No dividend shall be paid, and no part of the income of the Association shall be distributed to its Members, Directors, or Officers.
