ARTICLE IV

Purposes

1. This Corporation is organized not-for-profit and is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the purposes described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. No part of the earning of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, Director or Officer of the Corporation, or any other person (except that the Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or on behalf of the Corporation and make other payments and distributions in furtherance of one or more of its purposes), and no member or officer of the Corporation, or any other person shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. The Corporation shall pay no dividends.

3. The Corporation shall not participate, directly or indirectly, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. The Corporation shall not have the objectives nor engage in activities which would characterize it as an "action organization" as defined in Treasury Regulations.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities nor permitted to be carried on by any organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

5. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V

Restrictions

1. For any period in which the Corporation is a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Corporation shall also be subject to the following limitations.

H 04000039325 3

H 04000039325 3

(i) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(ii) The Corporation shall not engage in any self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(iii) The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(iv) The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(v) The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE VI

Capital Stock

The Corporation is a non-stock corporation and shall have no authority to issue any capital stock.

ARTICLE VII

Members

The Corporation shall have no members and shall not issue stock.

ARTICLE VIII

Management of Corporate Affairs

The powers of this Corporation shall be exercised and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors composed of three (3) initial members and whose replacements shall thereafter be named by the remaining members of the Board of Directors as provided in the

H 04000039325 3

H 04000039325 3

Bylaws. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased from time to time as the Board may determine, however, the number of Directors shall not be less than three.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification

Provided the person proposed to be indemnified satisfies the requisite standard of conduct for permissive indemnification by a corporation as set forth in the applicable provisions of the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and the Florida Business Corporation Act (currently, Sections 607.0831, 607.0850(1) and (2) of the Florida Statutes), as the same may be amended from time to time, the Corporation shall indemnify its officers and directors, and may indemnify its employees and agents, to the fullest extent permitted by the provision of such Law, as the same may be amended and supplemented, from and against any and all of the expenses or liabilities incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding (other than in an action, suit or proceeding brought by this Corporation upon authorization of the Board of Directors) or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions, including advancement of expenses prior to the final disposition of such proceedings and amounts paid in settlement of such proceedings, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while an officer, director, employee or other agent. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such officer or director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by other employees and agents shall also be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer, director, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personnel and other legal representatives of such a person. Except as otherwise provided above, an adjudication of liability shall not affect the right to indemnification for those indemnified.
