ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
IN COMPLIANCE WITH CHAPTER 617, F.S., (NOT FOR PROFIT)

Crew Labor, Inc.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation shall be Crew Labor, Inc.

ARTICLE II. DURATION

This corporation shall have perpetual existence commencing on March 15, 2004, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

This corporation is organized for the purpose of:

To promote and facilitate the development of new vocations and training services to at-risk adults along with substance abuse counseling as needed to improve their economic and social well-being.

Further said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The specific purposes will not serve to exclude the organization from carrying on any other charitable, religious, educational, or scientific activity permitted under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, officer of the corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in, including the publication or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to one or more charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereafter amended, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
