ARTICLE IX: Indemnification

Every Director and every Officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he may be a party or in which he may become involved by reason of his being or having been Director or an Officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except when the Officer or Director is adjudged guilty of willful negligence or fraud in the performance of his duties, provided that in the event of a settlement, the indemnification shall apply only when the Board of Directors approve such settlement and reimbursement as being for the best interest of the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE X: By-Laws

The Bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by the first Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded only at duly called meetings of the members in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI: Amendments

A. A majority of the Board of Directors or a majority of the voting members may propose alterations, amendments to, or the rescission of these Articles of Incorporation, so long as the proposals shall set forth the proposed alteration, amendment, or rescission; shall be in writing; shall be filed by the Board of Directors or a majority of the members and shall thereupon call a Special Meeting of the members of the Association not less than ten (10) days nor later than thirty (30) days from receipt of the proposed amendment, the notice for which shall be given in the manner provided in the Bylaws. An affirmative vote of seventy-five (75%) of the Board of Directors, and an affirmative vote of seventy-five (75%) of all votes of members of the Association shall be required for the adoption of the proposed alteration, amendment or rescission.

B. Any voting member may waive any or all of the requirements of this Article as to notice of proposals to the President of the Association for the alteration, amendment, or rescission of these Articles. Said waiver may occur before, at or after a membership meeting at which a vote is taken to amend, alter or rescind these Articles in whole or in part.

ARTICLE XII: Negation of Pecuniary Gain

The Corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit nor shall it have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends, and no part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any member, director or individual. The balance, if any, of all money received by the corporation from its operations, after the payment in full of all debts and obligations of the corporation of whatsoever kind and nature, shall be used and distributed exclusively for charitable, scientific, and education purposes.

ARTICLE XIII: Powers

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

A. The Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a nonprofit corporation which are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

B. The Association shall have all the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act, except as limited by these Articles and the Declaration of Condominium and its Exhibits, and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration as it may be amended from time, including but not limited to, the following:

1. To make and collect assessments against members as unit owners to defray costs, expenses and losses of the Condominium.

2. To use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.
3. The maintenance, repair, replacement and operation of the Condominium property.
4. The purchase of insurance upon the Condominium property and insurance for the protection of the Association and its members as unit owners.
5. The reconstruction of improvements after casualty and further improvements of the property.
6. To make and amend reasonable regulations respecting the use of the property in the Condominium; provided, however, that all such regulations and their amendments shall be approved by not less than seventy-five percent (67%) of the votes of the entire membership of the Board of Directors, and not less than a majority of the number of votes in attendance or by proxy, before such shall become effective.
7. To approve or disapprove the transfer, mortgage, and ownership of units as may be provided by the Declaration of Condominium and the Bylaws.
8. To contract for the management of the Condominium, and to delegate to such contractors all powers and duties of the Association, except such as are specifically required by the Declaration of Condominium to have approval of the Board of Directors or the membership of the Association.
9. To contract for the management or operation of portions of the common elements susceptible to separate management or operation, and to lease or assign such portions.
10. To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium.
11. To establish Bylaws for the operation of the Association.

C. Except as provided in the Declaration of Condominium, the Association shall not have the power to purchase any unit in the Condominium except at sales in foreclosures of liens for assessments for common expenses, at which sales the Association shall bid no more than the amount secured by its lien. This provision shall not be changed without unanimous approval of the members and the joinder of all record owners of mortgages upon the Condominium units.

D. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held in trust for the members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, and the Bylaws.

E. The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and the Bylaws.

F. No part of the income, if any, of this Association shall be distributed to the members, directors or officers of the Association unless in connection with the termination of the Condominium.

ARTICLE XIV: Members

A. The members of the Association shall consist of all record owners of units in the Condominium who have been approved for membership by the Association and are record title holders of a condominium unit. After termination of the Condominium, the members of the Association shall consist of those who are members at the time of such termination, their successors, assigns, and/or trustees.

B. After receiving approval of the Association as required by the Declaration of Condominium, a change of membership in the Association shall be established by recording in the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida, a deed or other instrument of like style and form conveying title. The owner designated by such instrument thus becomes a member of the Association, and the membership of the prior owner is terminated.

C. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his unit.

D. The owner(s) of each unit shall be entitled to the number of votes for that unit as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium for the Condominium and the exhibits thereto.
