ARTICLE 8
Board of Directors

The board of directors shall regulate the internal affairs of the corporation such that: no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefits of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Articles. The corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Upon dissolution of the corporation, the board of Directors shall after paying or making provisions for the payment for liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation to one or more organizations in the country, which are organized and operated exclusively for one or more exempt purposes with a similar mission within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of within a two year period shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the Court shall determine, which are organized and operate exclusively for such purposes.

Amendments

No officer or board member can make amendments to the articles of incorporation or by-laws without the written consent or approval of the Chief executive officer (Chairman of the board of Directors/President). In the case of death or resignation another chief executive officer meeting the same qualifications of Overseer or President must be appointed by the board of directors before changes can be made. Only the board of directors are allowed to amend the articles of incorporation or by-laws and only by a majority vote and written approval of the chief executive officer.
