- (3) To own, operate, lease, sell, trade, or otherwise deal with such property, real or personal within or assigned to the Wing, as may be necessary or convenient in the administration of the Wing.

ARTICLE III POWERS

3.01. Implied Powers. The Sub-association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit which are not in conflict with the purposes of a condominium association, as set forth in this Article, the Declaration, and the Act.

3.02. Specific Powers. The Sub-association shall have all of the powers set forth in the Act, and all of the powers reasonably necessary to operate the Limited Common Elements and other property assigned to the Wing (the "Wing Property") as set forth in the Declaration, including but not limited to the following irrevocable rights, powers, and authority:

(1) To enforce the covenants and restrictions contained in the Declaration, and to make, establish, and enforce reasonable Rules and Regulations governing the administration, management, and use of the Wing Property;

(2) To establish a budget for the operation of the Wing; to designate those expenses which shall constitute the Limited Common Expenses of the Wing; to make, levy, and collect assessments against Unit Owners of the Wing; to provide the funds to pay for the Limited Common Expenses as provided for in the Condominium Documents and in the Act; and to use and expend the proceeds of Assessments in the exercise of the powers and duties of the Sub-association;

(3) To maintain, repair, replace, and operate those portions of the Wing Property that the Sub-association has the duty or right to maintain, repair, replace, and operate under the Condominium Documents;

(4) To have access to each Unit within the Wing from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any Limited Common Elements therein or accessible therefrom, or, to have immediate access at any time as may be necessary for making emergency repairs necessary to prevent damage to any other Unit or Units within the Wing;

(5) To contract for the management of the Wing Property and to delegate to such agent(s) all or some of the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Sub-association;

(6) To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Wing;

(7) To purchase and maintain all forms of insurance on the Wing Property for the protection of the Sub-association and its members;
