The initial Board of Directors shall serve until the organizational meeting of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII

Corporate Officers

The Board of Directors shall elect such officers and agents as the bylaws of the corporation may authorize from time to time.

ARTICLE VIII

Members

Membership in the corporation, if any, shall be determined in the bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

Limitations

In no event shall the corporation engage in any activity which would be contrary to the purposes and activities permitted to be engaged in by any organization, the activities which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provision of any subsequent Internal Revenue law (the "Code"), or of a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

The corporation shall not engage, nor shall any of its funds, property or income be used, in carrying out propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, nor shall the corporation participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall the corporation engage in subversive activities.

The corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the Code.

((H04000101688 3))

No compensation shall be paid to any member, officer, director, trustee, creator or organizer of the corporation or substantial contributor to it except as a reasonable allowance for services actually rendered to or for the benefit of the corporation.

The corporation shall not be operated for the benefit of private interest. No part of the assets or the net earnings, current or accumulated, of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.

The corporation shall not make any loans to its directors, officers or employees, or to any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of its directors, officers or employees is a director, officer or employee or holds a substantial financial interest, except a loan to a corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall not apply the purchase of bonds, debentures or similar obligations of the type customarily sold in public offerings or through the ordinary deposit of funds in a bank.

ARTICLE X

Distribution of Assets

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation to another organization(s) which is organized and operated for the same purposes for which this corporation is organized and operated, or to such organization(s) organized and operated as an exempt organization(s) qualifying under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any assets not disposed of in accordance with the foregoing sentence shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine, which is organized and operated exclusively for the same purposes for which this corporation is organized.
