ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF ROSEWOOD'S CENTER FOR JUSTICE, INC.

FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
04 MAY 27 PM 12:40

The undersigned, acting as the incorporator of the Rosewood's Center for Justice, Inc. under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, submits the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE ONE: NAME

The name of the corporation is: Rosewood's Center for Justice, Inc.

ARTICLE TWO: DURATION AND COMMENCEMENT

The Corporation will exist perpetually, commencing with the filing of these Articles of Incorporation with the Florida Department of State.

ARTICLE THREE: PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized exclusively for such charitable, educational, literary, or scientific purposes, as will qualify it for exemption from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. Within the scope of the foregoing the corporation is specifically organized and empowered:

- A. To conduct or participate in activities to improve the administration of justice throughout the United States;
- B. To promote social welfare (1) through the elimination of prejudice and discrimination against African Americans and other victims thereof and (2) through the defense of human and civil rights secured by law;
- C. To educate members of the public on subjects useful to them and beneficial to the community, including educating members of the African American community regarding their civil rights and educating the public at large about the history of African Americans;
- D. To erect and maintain a monument and park that memorializes the Rosewood's massacre of 1923 that occurred in Levy County, Florida and to redevelop Rosewood Township, Levy County, Florida;
- E. To accept, hold, administer, invest and disburse for such purposes or for other scientific, educational, literary, charitable or religious purposes, such funds as may from time to time be given to it by any person, persons or corporations; and receive gifts and make financial and other types of contributions and assistance to scientific, educational, literary, charitable and religious organizations; and
- F. To engage in such other activities as are necessary, appropriate, or convenient to the furtherance of the foregoing stated purposes and permitted under the laws of Florida and of the United States.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, unless such member, director, officer or other private person is itself an organization qualifying for exemption from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law and except as reasonable compensation for services rendered, or to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article THREE. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent permitted pursuant to an election made under Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.
