ARTICLE IX

This organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of these purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by an organization exempt for Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for 501(c)(3) purposes.

ARTICLE X

Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of trustees shall after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of a court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation to such qualified organization or organizations as said court shall determine. For purposes of this Article, an organization is "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving such assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in section 170(c)(1) or 170(c)(2)(b), 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1896 as described in section 509(a)(1), (2) or (3) of said code. Any reference to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future United States Revenue Code.

ARTICLE XI

By Laws

The Board of Trustees of this corporation may provide such by-laws for the conduct of its business and the carrying out of its purposes, as they deem necessary from time to time. Upon proper notice the by-laws may be amended, altered, or rescinded by majority vote of those members of the Board of Trustees present at any regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI

Amendments

These Article of Incorporation may be amended at a meeting of the membership called for that purpose, by the majority vote of those present.

Amendments may also be made at regular meeting of the membership upon notice given, as provided by by-laws, of intention to submit such amendments.

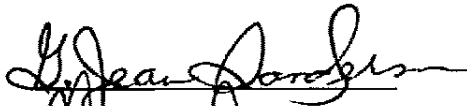

The undersigned incorporators have executed these Articles of Incorporation this 11th day of May 2004.
