ARTICLE IV

PURPOSES

The purposes and intention in forming the corporation are as follows:

- (A.) The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, educational and charitable purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code or Law), and more specifically, to receive and administer funds for such religious, charitable and educational purposes, all for the public welfare, and for no other purpose; and to that end to take and hold, bequest, devise, gift, purchase or lease either absolutely or in trust for such objects and purposes or any of them, any property real or personal or mixed, without limitation as to the amount or value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey, and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal or interest thereof, and to deal with and expend the income there from for any of the before-mentioned purposes, without limitation, except as may be imposed by law or contained in such instrument under which such real, personal, or mixed, in trust, is received or under the terms of any will, Deed of Trust, or other trust instrument for the forgoing purposes or any of them, and in administering the same to carry out directions, and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the trust property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income, for one or more purposes, if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received, but no gift, bequest, or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it be conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of the income to any person or organization other than a "charitable organization" or for other than for "charitable purposes" within the meaning of such terms as defined herein, or as shall, in the opinion of the Elders jeopardize the Federal Income tax exemption of the corporation pursuant to section 501 (c) (3) or any other section of the Internal Revenue Code, as now in force or afterward amended; to receive, to take title to, hold and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations or other securities of any other corporation, foreign or domestic, but only for the same of all forgoing purposes; and, in general, to exercise any, all and every power for which a non-profit corporation is organized under the applicable laws of any state or federal code for religious, educational and charitable purposes, but only to the extent the exercise of such powers are in the furtherance of exempt purposes; and that the corporation may by its By-laws make any other provision or requirement for the arrangement or conduct of the business of the corporation, provided the same be not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation nor contrary to state or federal law.

- (B.) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, Elders, officers or other private persons, except that corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities shall be for the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate, or intervene, (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried out on: (a.) by a corporation exempt from federal taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or, (b.) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or as it may be amended.
- (C.) Included among the religious, charitable and educational purposes for which the corporation is organized, as qualified and limited by sections (A.) and (B.) above, are the following:
1. To establish and maintain churches and to provide places of worship and prayer in accordance with the basic tenants and Articles of Faith established by the corporation and its By-laws.
 2. To establish, maintain and conduct Christian schools for religious training and general education training including, but not limited to pre-schools, kindergartens, elementary, and secondary schools, Bible schools, colleges and/or any other such schools as may be deemed necessary.
 3. To establish day care or related care facilities for children.
 4. To further all religious and charitable work.
 5. To establish a publishing ministry, including public outlets and/or distribution of publications or other media.
 6. To establish orphanages, home of the homeless, shelters, soup kitchens, food banks, low-income housing, senior citizens homes, nursing homes, medical facilities, alcohol rehab centers, drug rehab centers, hospitals, cemeteries, or other such facilities as the corporation deems advisable.
 7. To establish churches throughout the world and offer a method of fellowship through the licensing of ministers throughout the world, and creating a means of accountability for ministers, missionaries and evangelists within the fellowship.

8. And for such other purposes as the corporation may deem appropriate and proper to the functions of the corporation.

(D.) In the foregoing statement of purposes:

1. References to "charitable organization(s)" means corporations, trusts, funds, foundations or community chests created or organized in the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, exclusively for charitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which insures or is payable to or for the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and substantial part of the activities of which involves carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and which do not involve participating, or intervening, in any political campaign on behalf of any candidates for public office; and,
2. The term "charitable purposes" shall be limited to and shall include only religious, charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of the terms used in section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and only such purposes as also shall constitute charitable purposes under the laws of the United States.
