Purposes and full mission Statement:

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations, that qualify as exempt organizations under 501 (c)(3) of the internal Revenue code, or the correspondence section of any future tax code. The specific purpose of the corporation is to promote college education by providing assistance to a number of diverse organizations currently providing services to children and their families. Our first ambition is to provide each entity that is capable of providing coordinated, comprehensive and community-based care, with supplementary education, childcare, and research to have that entity meet their desired objectives.

(Continuation) purposes and mission:

The corporation's second and foremost objective is to encourage the significance of a college education and to provide assistance and a bridge between universities and organizations with families that may have financial uncertainties in their ranks. This information, such as college grants, scholarships, and loans, will give a family the hope for a better future through education. The hardship of obtaining a college degree for their child will be narrowed and in turn lessens the burdens of government. Our third focus is on the educational dissimilarity attainment by ethnic groups that has shown unequal disproportion in the last 30 years. Our Corporation will work diligently to address these issues to the minority category and accomplish a short turn goal increase of 15 % attainment in these lacking categories.

The Corporation is formed solely for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
