ARTICLE V: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

There shall be a Board of Directors for the corporation. The number of directors of this corporation shall be at least two (2). The election of the directors shall be as set forth in the By-Laws of the corporation.

The original by-laws of this corporation shall be made, prepared and adopted by the Board of Directors of the corporation by a majority vote thereof. Thereafter the said by-laws may be amended by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting of said Board of Directors or at any special meeting for which said meeting is called by a majority of the directors present. The Board of Directors shall also have the power from time to time to direct and determine the use and disposition of any revenues of the corporation subject to any limitations imposed as a qualified Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3) corporation.

The Board of Directors shall elect officers of this corporation, who shall consist of the President, who shall be a director, a Secretary/Treasurer, and such other further officers as may be provided by resolution of the Board of Directors. All officers, unless elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office after their election until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, unless it is provided by the by-laws that they shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The duties of all officers elected by the Board of Directors shall be prescribed by the by-laws or resolution of the Board of Directors.

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of this corporation is or are interested in or is a director or officer or are directors or officers of such other corporation and may be a party or parties to or may be interested in any contract or transaction of this corporation or in which the corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of this corporation with any person or persons, firms or corporations shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of this corporation is a party, or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction of the corporation or in which the corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of this corporation with any person or persons, firms or corporations shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of this corporation is a party, or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction or in any way connected with such person or persons, firms or associations, and each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist, from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or the firm or corporation to which he may be otherwise indebted.

Each officer and director of the corporation shall disclose to the Board of Directors his relationship with any person, firm or entity with which this corporation seeks to transact business and each such officer and director shall act in good faith with respect to such transaction.

ARTICLE VI: INDEMNIFICATION AND IMMUNITY

The Board of Directors is authorized, to the extent allowable by law, to indemnify any officers, directors, employees, or other agents of the corporation for any liability arising out of an act performed in furtherance of the officers', directors', employees', or agents' duties to the corporation. The Board of Directors may adopt an indemnification policy more restrictive than that allowed by law but shall set forth the indemnification policy in the corporation's By-Laws and shall not deviate therefrom without amending said By-Laws.

In furtherance, and not as a limitation of the indemnification provisions set forth herein, the Board of Directors recognizes that the activities of the board members, officers, and of volunteers providing assistance in furtherance of the interests of the corporation and those whom are served by the corporation, are purely voluntary and without compensation and such activities shall be immune from liability as follows:

No volunteer director or volunteer officer (as defined in the Act) shall be personally liable to this corporation or its members for monetary damages for a breach of such director's or officer's fiduciary duty; provided however, that this paragraph shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director or officer for any of the following:

1. A breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the corporation;
2. Acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
3. A transaction from which the volunteer director or volunteer officer derived an improper personal benefit;
4. An act or omission that is grossly negligent; or
5. An Act or omission occurring before the filing of these Articles.

Further, so long as it is tax exempt under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the corporation assumes all liability to any person other than the corporation or its members for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director incurred in the good faith performance of the volunteer director's duties occurring on or after the date these Articles are filed. However, the corporation shall not be considered to have assumed any liability to the extent that such assumption is inconsistent with the status of the corporation as an organization described in said § 501(c)(3).

In addition, the corporation assumes all liability to any person, other than the corporation, for all acts or omissions of a non-director volunteer if all of the following are met:

1. The volunteer was acting or reasonably believed he or she was acting within the scope of his or her authority;

2. The volunteer was acting in good faith;
3. The volunteer's conduct did not amount to gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct;
4. The volunteer's conduct was not an intentional tort; and
5. The volunteer's conduct was not a tort arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle for which tort liability may be imposed.

If the State Act is amended after the filing of these Articles to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, officers, or volunteers of non-profit corporations, then the liability of directors, officers, and volunteers, in addition to that described in this Article, shall be assumed by the corporation or eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the State Act as so amended except to the extent that such assumption is inconsistent with the status of the corporation as an organization described in said § 501(c)(3).

No amendment or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director, officer, or volunteer of this corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions occurring before the effective date of any such amendment or repeal.
