The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, against expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, to the extent that and under the circumstances in which the Florida corporate nonprofit statutes, laws or regulations permit such indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, against expenses (including attorney fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, to the extent that and under the circumstances which the Florida corporate nonprofit statutes, laws or regulations permit such indemnification.

Section 7.2. Manner of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made as authorized in a specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Florida corporate nonprofit statutes, laws or regulations with respect to indemnification of directors. Such determination may be made: (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board designated by the Board, which committee shall consist of two (2) or more Directors who were not parties to the action, suit, or proceeding, except that Directors who were parties to the action, suit, or proceeding may participate in the designation of Directors for the committee. If such quorum is not obtainable or such committee cannot be established pursuant to (a) and (b) above, or even if such quorum is obtained or such committee is designated if such quorum or committee so directs, such determination shall be made: (a) by independent legal counsel selected by vote of the Board of Directors or the committee in the manner specified in (a) or (b) above (as the case may be) or, if a quorum cannot be obtained and a committee cannot be established pursuant to (a) and (b) above, by independent legal counsel selected by a majority vote of the full Board. Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses may be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is proper is made; except that, if the determination that indemnification is proper is made by independent legal counsel (as set forth above), authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses may be made by the body that selected said counsel.

Section 7.3. Non-Exclusive Right. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 7.4. The Directors shall not have any personal liability to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a Director as set forth in Florida corporate nonprofit statutes, laws or regulations.
