Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, this Florida Not For Profit Corporation adopts the following amendment(s) to its Articles of Incorporation:

NEW CORPORATE NAME (if changing):

(must contain the word "corporation," "incorporated," or the abbreviation "corp." or "inc." or words of like import in language; "Company" or "Co." may not be used in the name of a not for profit corporation)

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED- (OTHER THAN NAME CHANGE) Indicate Article Number(s) and/or Article Title(s) being amended, added or deleted: (BE SPECIFIC)

I hereby certify that a meeting held on August 18, 2004 at which more than fifty percent of the members of Temple Elohim and Ministries were present, which was sufficient for approval, the following amendment was adopted.

The following articles shall be added to the Articles of Incorporation as Article IX:

The corporation shall operate exclusively in any other manner for such charitable and educational as will qualify it as an exempt organization as in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in 1954, as amended, or under any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, covering the distribution to organizations qualified as tax tax exempt organizations under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including private foundations and private operating foundations.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Sec.16 and Article IV.

No substantial part of the activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of candidate for public office.

The corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) under Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code law); or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision of the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all assets of the corporation exclusively for the purpose of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as such court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious, educational and charitable purposes, and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any trustee, officer or member thereof or to the benefits of any private individual.
