After the dissolution of the for profit organization Iglesia Cristiana Reformada "Vida Nueva" Inc. in June, we sent the nonprofit Articles of Incorporation for Iglesia Cristiana Reformada Vida Nueva, Inc. with a check for $87.50. The check was never returned to us.

This fax serves as an Affidavit that we have no intentions of reopening the for profit organization Iglesia Cristiana Reformada "Vida Nueva" Inc. Therefore, we want the same name to be used for the nonprofit organization.

Please file these nonprofit Articles of Incorporation immediately and send the requested certificate to the address indicated

Any questions, please call me at (305) 975-4310.

Sincerely,

Anita L. Rodriguez, CPA

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

This church is a nonprofit, ecclesiastical corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or a corresponding provision of any future federal tax code. In order to carry out the above stated purposes, the corporation shall have all those powers set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes (or a successor statute of similar import).

ARTICLE IV
CHURCH GOVERNANCE

The ecclesiastical government of the church shall be conducted in accordance with the Church Order of the Christian Reformed Church in North America as synod shall adopt or revise (the "Church Order").

The council of this church as defined under the Church Order shall constitute the Board of Trustees and be interpreted by the Classis of which the church is a member (the "Classis") subject to review on appeal by synod consistent with the Church Order.

A. In the event of dissolution:

In the event of the disbanding of this church and the dissolution of this corporation, the church's remaining assets, if any, after the payment of its debts and expenses, shall be conveyed as the Board of Trustees may propose and as the affirmative vote of a majority of the members shall determine, subject to each of the following:

1. The Classis must approve the disbanding of this church and the dissolution of this corporation.
2. The Board of Trustees shall consult with the Classis in formulating its proposal for property distribution.
3. The vote of the members shall be in accordance with the provisions of paragraph B of Article V of these Articles of Incorporation; and
4. All remaining assets must be distributed only to one or more organizations which qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

B. In the Event of Consensual Division

In the event that a majority of the members of this church consensually agree to divide this church, with the consent of the Classis, into two (2) or more member churches of the Christian Reformed Church in North America, all real and personal property of this corporation shall be distributed as a majority vote of the members determines in accordance with the provisions of paragraph B of Article V of these Articles of Incorporation.

C. In the event of Irreconcilable Division

In the event that the Classis (or synod on appeal) determines that an irreconcilable division (schism) has occurred within this church, the confessing members of this church who, according to the exclusive determination of the Classis (or synod on appeal), remain true to the purposes of this church as a member church of the Christian Reformed Church in North America and the principles of doctrine and ecclesiastical government outlined under Article V of these Articles of Incorporation shall be the lawful congregation of this church and shall have the exclusive right to hold and enjoy the real and personal property of this church. Nothing in this Article VI shall prevent the Classis (or synod on appeal) from determining, in keeping with the scriptural injunction of I Corinthians 6 that more than one group of confessing members of this church are each a lawful congregation and dividing the real and personal property between the groups of members as Classis (or synod on appeal) may determine.

ARTICLE V MANNER OF ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

- A. Except as provided under paragraphs (B) through (D) of this Article V of these Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Trustees shall have the authority to bargain, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or release any real estate belonging to the church; to erect and repair church buildings, parsonages, schoolhouses, and other buildings for the direct and legitimate use of the church, and to fix the salary of anyone in its employment.
- B. No purchase, sale or conveyance, mortgage, lease or fixing of salaries shall occur under paragraph (A) of this Article V of these Articles of Incorporation unless the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the church shall be first obtained at a meeting of the members present and entitled to vote. This meeting shall be specially called for that purpose by notice given for two successive Sundays at the usual place of meeting.
- C. In the event of schism, the provisions of Article IV C shall control the disposition of any real or personal property, and this Article V shall not be effective.
- D. No sale, mortgage, or conveyance shall be made of any gift, grant, donation, conveyance, or bequest which would be inconsistent with the express terms or plain intent of the grant, donation, gift, conveyance, or bequest.
- C. In the event of schism, the provisions of Article IV C

ARTICLE VI AMENDMENTS

The Board of Trustees may at any time by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the trustees, adopt amendments to these Articles of Incorporation. Notwithstanding the preceding provision, the Board of Trustees shall not adopt any amendments to these Articles of Incorporation which are inconsistent with the provisions of Articles III through VIII unless approved by the Classis (or synod on appeal).

Before any such amendment shall become effective, the trustees shall obtain an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the church, present and entitled to vote at a meeting specially called for that purpose of which notice has first been given as provided for under paragraph B of Article V of these Articles of Incorporation.
