ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose of this business is providing help to parents and keeping children busy and out of trouble. There are benefits of this business such as the training of children on safety and caution at the steering, prepares them for driving in adolescence and adulthood with a sense of responsibility, control at the wheel. For those drivers that wish to enter in the world of racing either professionally or just as a sport enthusiast, but none the less at the wheel, they will learn to handle speed. Karting is a hobby, karting is a serious sport, karting can be family amusement time, and it is a growing sport/entertainment activity around the world. A good example is the fact that Formula drivers practice in Karts, and 90% of the world drivers in the Formula categories have their background in Karting, notably the largest percentage of champions also had their birth in Karting. This corporation will be offering training in the form of short term classes, for the new drivers and continuing driver education into a professional level; and for young drivers of all ages.
