- F. To approve or disapprove the transfer of ownership, leasing and occupancy of units, as provided by the declaration of condominium.
- G. To enforce the provisions of the condominium act, the declaration of condominium, these articles, and the bylaws and any rules and regulations of the Association.
- H. To contract for the management and maintenance of the condominium and the condominium property, and to delegate any powers and duties of the Association in connection therewith, except such as are specifically required by the law or by the condominium documents to be exercised by the board of directors or the membership of the Association.
- I. To employ accountants, attorneys, architects, and other professional personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the condominium.
- J. To enter into agreements, or acquire leaseholds, memberships, and other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities such as country clubs, golf courses, marinas and other recreational facilities. It has the aforementioned powers, whether or not the lands or facilities are contiguous to the lands of the condominium, if they are intended to provide enjoyment, recreation or other use or benefit to the unit owners.
- K. To borrow money without limit as to amount if necessary to perform its other functions hereunder.
- L. To participate in mergers or consolidations with other condominium(s), or their associations.

All funds and the title to all property acquired by the Association shall be held for the benefit of the members in accordance with the provisions of the declaration of condominium, these articles of incorporation and the bylaws.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP:

- A. The members of the Association shall consist of all record owners of legal title to one or more units in the condominium, as further provided in the bylaws.
- B. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his or her unit.
- C. The owners of each unit, collectively, shall be entitled to one (1) vote in Association matters, as further set forth in the declaration of condominium and the bylaws. The manner of exercising voting rights shall be as set forth in the bylaws.

ARTICLE IV

TERM: The term of the Association shall be perpetual.

incorporation may be amended by vote of a majority of those voting interests that are present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual or special meeting, or by approval in writing of a majority of the voting interests without a meeting, provided that notice of any proposed amendment has been given to the members of the Association, and that the notice contains the full text of the proposed amendment.

4. Effective Date. An amendment shall become effective upon filing with the Secretary of State and recording a certified copy in the public records of the county where the condominium property is located.

ARTICLE VIII

INDEMNIFICATION: To the fullest extent permitted by Florida law, the Association shall indemnify and hold harmless every director and every officer of the Association against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys fees, actually and reasonably incurred by or imposed on him in connection with any legal proceeding (or settlement or appeal of such proceeding) to which he or she may be a party because of his or her being or having been a director or officer of the Association. The Association shall advance all such costs and fees during the pendency of the action. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be available if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions or omissions to act were material to the cause adjudicated and involved:

- A. Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Association, in a proceeding by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor.
- B. A violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his action was unlawful or had reasonable cause to believe his action was lawful.
- C. A transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit.

In the event of a settlement, the right to indemnification shall not apply unless the board of directors approves such settlement as being in the best interests of the Association. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which a director or officer may be entitled.

The indemnification hereby afforded to directors and officers shall also extend to any entity other than the Association found responsible or liable for the actions of such individuals in their capacity as directors or officers, including without limitation, the developer.
