ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE AND POWERS

The purposes of which this Corporation is formed are exclusively charitable, educational, economic, religious and literary within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. And will consist of the following:

A. The Specific and primary purposes are:

(1) To identify, mobilize and fully utilize all available resources - local, state and national, both public and private - toward the eradication of the causes, conditions and effects of poverty; to work to increase the dignity and respect of those it strives to free from poverty; to undertake such activities as are permitted for corporations operating under the provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (1986) ; to support and encourage self sufficiency for the low income residents. Further, the Corporation shall insure that all its responsibilities and related necessary activities are provided to enhance the quality of life for the low income and shall develop and support economic development activities anticipated as a part of the program, including without limitation education and training.

(2) To establish the foundation for low-cost housing through the resources of a local Housing Advisory Committee to help accommodation constructing, rehabilitating, and demolitions to provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing for all area citizens including the Homeless.

(3) To raise the economic, educational and social levels of the residents of the Counties in the targeted areas of operation whose income is below federal poverty guidelines. To create a real and genuine interest and concern for the affected groups housing, educational, social and economic well being.

(4) To encourage Financial, Education, Religious Institutions and Private Developers to commit to do joint ventures for the Construction, Rehabilitation, Preservation and maintenance, Demolition, Expansion of Housing Support Services and provide an Emergency Shelter for the targeted group.

(5) To pursue the establishment of a local Housing Trust Fund or loan pool to support affordable housing initiatives, with firm commitments from individuals and businesses.

B.

(1) To raise the economic, educational and social levels of the residents of the Counties in the targeted areas of operation including members of the moderate, low, and very low income community, who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to foster and promote community-wide interest and concern for the problems of said residents to the end that (a) educational and economic opportunities may be expanded; (b) sickness, poverty, crime, and environmental degradation may be lessened; and (c) racial tensions, prejudice, and discrimination, economic and otherwise, any be eliminated; and (d) need for establishing and fostering additional availability of affordable housing.

(2) To expand the opportunities available to said residents and groups to own, manage, and operate business enterprises in economically depressed areas; to assist said residents and groups in developing entrepreneurial and management skills necessary for the successful operation of business enterprises; and to assist said residents and groups in obtaining financial support from other sources.

(3) To expand opportunities available to said residents and groups to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodation by constructing, rehabilitating, and providing decent, safe, and sanitary housing for persons and families of low-income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live. It is this purpose of the Corporation thereby to relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare. To provide such housing through rehabilitation of existing substandard buildings and construction of new facilities in the place of blighted structures or blighted vacant sites for the purpose of combating the deterioration of the community and contributing to its physical improvements.

(4) To aid, support and assist by gifts, contributions, or otherwise, other corporations, community chests, funds and foundations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes, no part of the net earnings of which endures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is for carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.
