ARTICLE IV PURPOSES

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized is:

Said Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, literary, charitable, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation shall provide for the advancement and promotion of God's kingdom through meaningful worship experiences and inspirational music which includes chapel services, preaching and reading of God's word to individuals, churches, nursing homes, ministries, prisons, campus ministries and the public. The Corporation will promote and edify God's church wherever it may be found, and communicate and propagate the Gospel of Jesus by any and all means in order to cultivate minds and plant seeds with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

To provide help to feed and clothe needy families which helps lessen the burdens of government and strengthen the community.

To write, produce, print, publish and distribute Christian literature which can be used to aid religious and charitable works as the Board of Directors may determine advisable including but not limited to books, magazines, brochures, cassette and video tapes, television, radio and the internet.

The Corporation will network to interchange ideas and resources for the enhancement of God's kingdom and people. Fellowship opportunities will be provided for all ages through group social events and church sponsored programs.

To Meet the Total Need of Man by attracting and leading unsaved souls to Christ through discipleship, encouraging saints to devote themselves to God's purpose in their lives, providing a climate of spiritual growth, nurturing, mentoring and worshipping.

Seminars, bible studies and diverse educational programs will be conducted to promote spiritual growth and God's word as well as any other means deemed appropriate.

Nurturing, mentoring and training leaders for the work of the ministry and edifying of the saints.

Conduct religious worship services through various forms of ministry.

To provide Ministerial Training and Doctrine Study that will license or ordain Ministers, Evangelists, and Missionaries, which will equip them for the enhancement of God's Kingdom.

ARTICLE V POWERS
