ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE OF CORPORATION

The corporation is organized for charitable and educational purposes as a musical club, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to other organizations qualifying as an exempt organization from Federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

ARTICLE 15 – OPERATIONS

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other purpose not permitted to be carried on (a) by and organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

ARTICLE 16 – DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

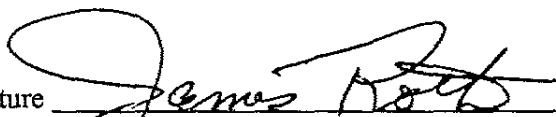

The date of adoption of the amendment(s) was: September 4th, 2007
